LETTERS TO GENERAL GREENE AND OTHERS

Annotated by JOSEPH W. BARNWELL

Sir:

I have received your Letter of the 19th Inst: & am to thank you for the very proper measures you took to free the Country from the Enemy's Plundering Parties, & trust you will, in a great degree, hinder their again crossing to your Side of the River. To this End it will be necessary to keep a watchful Eye on the Passages between you & Nelson's Ferry, & be attentive to the communications with that Post, on which Subject I now write to the Com<sup>d</sup> Officer there.

I am, Sir

Your obedient humble Servant

W. Balfour.

Lieut: M<sup>c</sup>Pherson

(Turn over.)

<sup>1</sup> The gallant and able officer who was in command of Fort Motte when it was besieged and taken by Greene's troops in May 1781. The driving away of the families of Whigs from their plantations is consistent with Balfour's action in the execution of Col. Isaac Hayne.

P. S. I must request that you will be so good as to take particular care, that the family's of those who have joined the enemy are not suffered to remain on their plantations but sent off immediately—W. B.

Calling on the C. de la L<sup>3</sup>: a few days ago to congratulate him on the Arrival of the F: Fleet in the Bay of C:<sup>4</sup>, The Conversation after a time was turned to the Object agst: which it was hoped the armament was to be employed when the Reduction of C<sup>5</sup> should be accomplished; & I embraced the Opp'y of urging as far as I was able the necessity & practicability of recovering C. T. to the Union—The Minister appear'd (as he always has been) anxiously disposed to advance the Operation, & desired that I w<sup>d</sup> Submt to him in writing my Ideas of the practicability, promising to make up of his best Services wth: the C. de G: for a naval Cooperation—the Candor & Confidence with which he has treated me, the Influence which his Interest may possibly have on the Conduct of the Admiral, & the Import<sup>ce</sup> of the Object which was to be obtained would not suffer me to hesitate; & I complied with his Request the day before Yesterday by delivering to him such Sentiments as I could well throw together within the Compass of a Letter—urging in addition to the practicability of the Measures, such political Reasons as my Ideas suggested to me for a speedy attempt.

I observed to him that, as the F. Fleet in A: was now not only vastly Superior to every th<sup>g</sup> the B: have, but to every thing which they can have, even when reinforced by Adm'r D: with 6 Sail of the Line, that it w<sup>d</sup> be impossible for the Eng. to venture an attack on them, or attempt the Relief of C. T. with a probability of Success: we had therefore reduced to a certainty, the Force, against which we w<sup>d</sup> have to contend.

The Season of the y<sup>r</sup> from the begining of Oct<sup>o</sup> to the End of the Winter, was on every Acc<sup>t</sup> the most eligible for operating—provisions of all Kinds being then in greater plenty, & of better Quality than at any other period—The weather usually remarkably fine—the Climate peculiarly Healthy, & the Strength of the United Army full half way from their late Station, to the Scene of Action.

That should C<sup>o</sup> be overcome (as Heaven's grant he may) the Acc<sup>t</sup> of it would arrive in England just ab<sup>t</sup> the Meeting of P——t— an important period in which the Ministry w<sup>d</sup> be enabled to Props with more Confidence one or oth<sup>r</sup> of the following plans— either to open a Negotiation for a peace, or to Seek out Some new Alliance; to obtain which they must & would make very great Sacrifices; or what was equally probable they w<sup>d</sup> annoy us with one, while they push'd the other—If the first plan alone Sh<sup>d</sup> be adopted to what Advantage Sh<sup>d</sup> we treat if in posso<sup>n</sup> of C: T.— if the latter sh<sup>d</sup> be successfully persued & we sh<sup>d</sup> not be in the possession of C. T. on the arrival of the reinforc<sup>ts</sup> to the Gen: in C. T. it was impossible to say when or where we ever shall obtain it by Arms—In the Summer we shall be obliged to abandon the lower, to seek Health in the upper p<sup>t</sup> of the C<sup>o</sup>; to leave the Wealth of the State in the power of our Enemies, & Such Families as could not be remov'd, at their Mercy. Or else we must at all Events keep our Army in the Vicinity of the Town, & suffer it to be consumed by sickness—In Short that there was every thing to be expected from an immediate Exertion, everything, to be dreaded from a delay—I farther observed to him that if we possessed our selves of it at an early period We should have the Benefit of the present Crop which will be soon harvested & be in time to prepare for the ensuing year; which, tho' not of very general nature, is deserving of Attentions, as will affect the Convenience of some Thousand Individuals, & those of the most helpless class—I then stated to him the Importance of the Southern States to France when considered in a commercial point of View—the great Advantages which She must derive from the Circumstances of those States being principally devoted to Agriculture, their being of course obliged to obtain from abroad almost all the Manufactures which they used & the probability there was of having a considerable part of their produce carried off in y<sup>e</sup> Vessels of France; concluding the whole with observing That when the B: C: took their final Leave of A: in 1778 they declared y<sup>t</sup> they w<sup>d</sup> desolate the Country and render as little useful to France as possible—that in their Declaration they appeared to have been sincere—That they had sent from the Southern States many thousands of Slaves by whom the Fields were cultivated, & probably in their last act of Rage and Malice they would reduce our Capital to Ashes—that the speedy Recovery of the State and a naval Force sufficient to prevent their Escape afther having perpetrated so savage an Act were the only Securities we could possibly have against Beings who have been so long destitute of Humanity, and who would make it their greatest Glory to wound in their vital parts a people united to his most Xtian Mag<sup>t</sup> as we were by every Sentiment which Affection & Gratitude c<sup>d</sup> inspire.

As I imagined it possible that what has passed on this Occasion might find its way to the Bay of C. I thought it nothing but a matter of Becoming Delicacy as well as a Point of Duty on my part to communicate it to y<sup>o</sup> as soon as possible confident as I am that your Friendship will excuse the trouble which the perusal will give you & persuaded that sh<sup>d</sup> it become a Subject of conversation & there sh<sup>d</sup> be a possibility of their being appeal<sup>ed</sup> they w<sup>d</sup> receive all poss Support from your better Reason.

Your most affect Friend

THOSE gallant SONS of BRITAIN, IRELAND and AMERICA, whose Errors or Misfortunes have compelled them to enlist under the Banners of a Rebel Congress, paid by the King of France, and devoted to his Will—who in Return for their Services, for the Toils, Difficulties and Dangers they have undergone, have neither received the Pay nor Cloathing due to them; and who, in a Word, are now experiencing the Want of almost every Necessary, as well as Comfort of Life;—Let such Men shew the Spirit becoming Freemen; let them disengage themselves from so ignominious, disgraceful and unprofitable a Service.—Within the British Lines, they will be received with Kindness; and may sell their Arms, Accoutrements and Horses; there Tradesmen may follow their Occupations, and be paid in solid Coin for their Work—Such Natives of the Old Country as wish to return Home, will have abundant Opportunities; while those who are desirous of enriching themselves with the Spoils of our Enemies, or are anxious to acquire Military Glory, may enter into the Service of King GEORGE.

List of Persons ordered out of Charlestown April 28, 1782.

<sup>7</sup> The numbers of the Royal Gazette, then printed in Charleston, between March 23 and May 22, 1782, are missing from the volume owned by the Charleston Library Society, and it is impossible to say from this source whether this proclamation was issued in Charleston only, as it purports to be. The House of Commons had on February 27, 1782, adopted without division a resolution praying the King not to pursue further the object of reducing the Colonies to their allegiance. This news was probably not known in Charleston when this bitter proclamation was issued. On April 4th Gen. Leslie commanding the British forces in Charleston attempted to procure the suspension of the confiscation Acts passed by the Jacksonborough Assembly in January of that year, and the prevention of further devastation on either side, by suggesting the appointment of Commissioners with a view to coming to an agreement on the subject. Governor John Mathews, elected by that Assembly, refused this suggestion (Ramsay, Revolution In So. Ca., Vol. 11, 355). This proclamation and the expulsion from Charleston of prominent Whigs and their families may have resulted from that refusal. There was certainly a renewal of incursions from Charleston into other parts of the State.

<sup>7</sup> The absence of the files of the Royal Gazette mentioned above prevents the verification of this list. Most of the information as to the persons expelled is taken from the almanac of John Tobler, published in 1782 when the British were in possession of Charleston, and from the almanac for 1785 published after the end of the War. Both of these almanacs may be found in the Charleston Library.

<sup>8</sup> John and William Harvey were brothers and men of property and steady "patriots." William was one of the prisoners confined on the prison ship "Pack Horse." It was on behalf of these prisoners and those confined on the prison ship "Tarbay" that the famous letter was written by their ranking officers saying that if the threats of retaliation upon them, made by Balfour, were carried out for acts of retaliation by Gen. Greene for the execution of Col. Isaac Hayne, and it should fall to the lot of any of them to be "made victims," they had "only to regret that their blood could not be disposed of more to the advancement of the glorious cause to which they had adhered." (Ramsay's Revolution in So. Ca., Vol. 11, 535.)

<sup>10</sup> John Paul Grimkie was the father of Judge Grimke, then Maj. Grimke, whose order book we have been publishing.

<sup>11</sup> Saml. Prioleau, Jr. & Co. were doing business at Cor. Broad & East Bay in 1785.

<sup>15</sup> Charles Pinckney was the father of Governor Charles Pinckney whose draft of a Constitution of the United States was so largely used in drafting the present Constitution. The father had been a member of Rutledge's council and had afterwards taken protection.

Sir.

In Obedience to your Excellency's Request to proceed on Wednesday last to M<sup>rs</sup> Elliott's at Accabee to meet such Gentlemen as should be appointed by L<sup>t</sup> General Leslie & to receive & discuss such Propositions as they should think fit to make relative to the Redelivery of American Property within the British Lines—Between two & three o'Clock in the afternnon of that Day M<sup>r</sup> Alexander Wright & M<sup>r</sup> James Johnston answered on the part of General Leslie & open'd the Business by saying that they had been sent to by that Officer about nine o'Clock in the Morning but had not had access to him until twelve when he desired that they would meet your Excellency's Commissioners and make the following Proposition.

"That there s<sup>d</sup> be a Restoration of all American Property now within the British Lines, such only excepted as he should be obliged to remove, by which was to be understood such of our domestics

<sup>49</sup> Mrs. Warley. Felix Warley was Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in 1784. Felix, Paul, Joseph and George, all officers in the Continental Line, were probably her sons.

<sup>50</sup> On August 17th, 1782 Governor Mathews had written to Gen. Leslie threatening that if the property of the citizens of South Carolina was carried off by the British fleet, which was assembling for the evacuation of Charleston, he would seize the debts due to the British merchants then in Charleston. This had led to the appointment of Commissioners on either side who on October 10th, 1782 came to an agreement, seeking to prevent, among other things, the carrying off of negroes belonging to citizens of the State, upon the fleet. This letter is a draft of the first report made by Edward Rutledge and Benjamin Guerard, appointed by the Governor, with regard to their efforts to reach an agreement.

as had rendered themselves obnoxious to their Masters by being servicable to the British: that they would nevertheless be fairly valued and fully paid for. Upon Condition that y<sup>r</sup> Excellency & the Council would agree to a suspension of the Confiscation Act and pledge themselves to use their best Endeavours as well in their Judicial as official Capacities to obtain a total Repeal of that Act upon the next meeting of the Legislature” Your Xcy’s Com’ers answered them by saying that the Act of which the Repeal was required had been passed in the full assembly, upon mature Deliberation & with the full concurrence of both Houses, that y<sup>r</sup> Xcy. would therefore in our opinion assume a great deal too much should y<sup>o</sup> attempt to suspend the Operation of that Act & that therefore any Interference with it on that Head y<sup>r</sup> Xcy’s considered was utterly inadmissible. The British Commers replied that they were not at Liberty to make any further offers, General Leslie having declared his Resolution in Case his propositions should not be acceded to to carry off all the Property he could possess himself of, that Compensation might be made to the Friends of British Government for their Losses. But that as the Subject which we were discussing was of vast Importance, & as they were at Liberty to listen to any Proposition from us they were desirous of knowing what engagem<sup>ts</sup> we would enter into for the Property in Question—y<sup>r</sup> Excys Commers then answered that in passing the Act above mentioned the Legislature had exercised a great Degree of Humanity by exempting from Confiscation Debts due to British Merchants, to their own Citizens who were the Object of the Act, & Settlements fairly made for the Provision of Families—that such Lenity would appear the more conspicuous when our former Forbearance was recollected & compared with the conduct of British Generals [Lord Cornwallis’s name written and erased] from the time that the American Government had been established on the Ruins of the Royal authority until the Reduction of Charles Town the Pt<sup>y</sup> of the Subjects of G: B: & of our own Inhabitants who had declared their Sentiments & with drawn from our Society had been secured & protected by Our Laws, And how had we been requited? We had been requited in the following Manner—the The Capitulation had been infringed as soon almost as it had been signed—the Property of nearly every Citizen who had adhered to his Alleg<sup>ce</sup>: had been sequestered & much of it squandered,—

Marriage Settlements had been broken in upon—the validity of Contracts for the Sale of estates since the Revolution had been questioned for the Purpose of grasping the Property of our fellow Citizens—& even Debts which were due to our unfortunate Countrymen were made Objects for Sequestration—that in Conseq<sup>ce</sup>; of such Conduct we had sustained hopes (independent of the ppty in Town) infinitely beyond what we had confiscated, from thence we should have been fully justified in going every length; & that if the British should carry off such of our Property as was now in their Possession, the people of this State would hold themselves at Liberty to proceed to the Extremity of Power: that having now given this previous and timely notice if they by their Conduct should compel us to go into measures painful to our feelings & injurious to their Interests the Misfortune & the Faults would be on their own Heads as we had in what was withheld from Confiscation ample Funds for Reperation? Yet as we wished to avoid any further Measures which could occasion them Distress we were ready & willing on our part to do every thing in our power to prevent: & then Your Eccy's Commers made the following Proposition &c &c.

The British Commers replied that the Proposals appeared deserving of serious Consideration & requested that they might have an opp'y of communicating them to Gen<sup>l</sup> L. to which we readily agreed & they accordingly returned to Town that Even'g & came up again about two oClock to day with the following Answer—&c.

It appearing that nothing more could be done in this Business an End was put to the Conference by mutually declaring that we did not consider the Propositions on either side as any longer binding & that each Party was as much at Liberty as before the Conference We have the Honor to be

THE EARLY GENERATIONS OF THE SEABROOK FAMILY

Compiled by MABEL L. WEBBER

The arms given in the family papers, imperfectly blazoned are: "A red cross on silver shield, a black cross crosslet fitchée. Crest: hand erect holding a red cross".

Burke's Armorie (1851) gives for Seabrook, Arms: Argent, a lion pass, gules, in chief a cross crosslet fitchée sable.

Crest: a hand erect, holding a cross crosslet in pale gules.

In this attempt to give some account of the earlier generations of the Seabrooks, a prominent and influential family who settled in Colleton County sometime before 1680, only the public records have been used, for such family accounts as the Compiler had access to, were mainly traditional, and did not agree with data found in the public records. As the Colleton records before 1865 have been destroyed, and the Charleston records show many sad gaps and the Seabrooks, as a rule, seemed to have failed to leave wills, there are several problems which have been settled by negative, rather than positive evidence.

Much valuable assistance has been given by D. E. Huger Smith, Esq. and M. Alston Read, Esq. both in collecting the material and in solving the various interesting problems which presented themselves.

Captain Robert Seabrook (1652-1710), an English Merchant, was the ancestor of the South Carolina family; he came to the province before June, 1680, and, from the will of his son John, he appears to have come from Dunstable, in the County of Bedford. As Robert Seabrook, merchant, he gets a warrant in June, 1680, for 200 acres of land, and warrants, dated Feb. 17 and 18, 1680/1 for two town lots in Charles Town, and in August 1683 one for 80 acres for the importation of two servants.<sup>1</sup>

In January, 1692/3, he was granted lot no. 159 in Charles Town for a church yard<sup>2</sup> [sic]

In August 1692, he was accused of holding "unlawful Commerce wth pyratts selling unto them provisions arms & ammuniti<sup>o</sup>n," and was fined.<sup>3</sup>

In April, 1697, he bought 2700 acres of land in Colleton County, and his son John bought 2080 acres.<sup>4</sup> He was a Commissioner under the Church Act of Nov. 4, 1704;<sup>5</sup> was a Member of Assembly and speaker of the House in 1705,<sup>6</sup> and commanded a company from the Islands during the French Invasion in 1706.<sup>7</sup>

Robert Seabrook died December 7, 1710, in his 59th year, and his wife Sarah died June 16, 1715, in her 47th year; they, with their son Benjamin, were buried at the old St. Pauls Church, Stono, near Church Flats, where their tombstones still remain.<sup>8</sup>

Robert Seabrook left a will, which is missing; from other wills, deeds, and inventories, he appears to have had children as given below, order of birth unknown. Sarah was probably a second wife, for according to her tombstone she was seventeen years younger than her husband, and the manhood dates of John Seabrook, son of Robert, make it seem unlikely that he could have been her son.

Robert Seabrook (1) had issue:

2. i. John Seabrook, of age by 1697, therefore born 1676 or earlier. Will made 1706; married Ann—
3. ii(?). Thomas Seabrook, of age by 1712, therefore born 1691 or earlier; latest date found concerning him is 1720; married Mary—?
4. iii. Ann Seabrook, married William Parrott, of James Island; she was born 1700 or earlier, and was still living in Dec. 1757, when her son Benjamin made his will.

John Seabrook (Robert, 1) of Colleton Co. Born before 1676; purchased 2080 acres of land May 15, 1697. Made his will April 15, 1706 (no date of proof); he died before Jan. 1712.

In his will<sup>10</sup> he describes himself as John Seabrook of Colleton County, and mentions the following:

Poor of the Parish of Dunstable, County of Bedford, England £100 Sterling. Eldest son of Joseph Peddiphett living in the Barbican near Aldersgate London, £50 Sterling.

Eldest son of Joseph Fossey of "Hochley in the Whole" Middlesex, £50 Sterling. Wife Ann Seabrook £200 currency of So. Ca. in lieu of her thirds. Father, Robert Seabrook £200 currency in trust for daughter Martha when sixteen or married. Son James Seabrook £500 currency when 20, clear of all charges for his education &c. To Brothers and Sisters [not named] £20 currency each. To father Robert Seabrook Esq. of Colleton Co., all lands, negro and Indian slaves, horses, cattle, hogs and stock whatsoever. Father Robert Seabrook sole executor, Dated 15 April, 1706 [date of proof not given, but the will just before this was proved in April 1712, and the one following proved in May, 1712.] Witnesses, Evan Mackpherson, Hugh Hext, Benjamin X Lamboll [mark] and Henry Wigington.

In January, 1712, an act was passed to enable Capt. Arthur Hall, Capt. John Whitmarsh, and Mr. Robert Seabrook, administrators of John Seabrook, late of the Province of Carolina, planter deceased, with will annexed, to sell the lands of said John Seabrook to pay his debts, legacies &c.

John Seabrook (2) had issue:

1. Martha, no further record.
2. James, no further record.
3. Child unborn in 1706 no further record.

3.

Thomas Seabrook (Robert, 1). The inference is strong that Thomas was a son of Capt. Robert, but no conclusive proof of the relationship has been found. On 26 Dec. 1712,<sup>11</sup> as Thomas Seabrook of Colleton Co., planter, he mortgages to Capt. Arthur Hall, John Whitmarsh and Robert Seabrook, administrators, with will annexed, of John Seabrook, two plantations in Colleton County 2080 acres on the west side of the Ashepoo River, and 380 acres adjoining, in all 2460 acres bounded east on the river; William Parrott. Edmund Cook and William Allen witnesses. The number of acres first mentioned, 2080, agrees with the number purchased by John Seabrook in 1697; probably Thomas Seabrook purchased John Seabrook's lands, giving a mortgage on same. On 23d. January, 1715/16, as Thomas Seabrook, of Colleton, planter, he gave a bond<sup>12</sup> to Capt. Anthony Mathewes of Charles Town for £997 current money, and mortgaged to Mathewes the following Slaves: Negroes, Jolly, Sampson, Daffiny Betty and Francisca; two Indian men, Peter and Anthony, and four Indian women, Catrena, Judy, Hager and Sarah.

The latest date yet found for Thomas Seabrook was 16 April 1720, when, with William Parrott and Lud. Grant he witnessed a deed<sup>13</sup> of release from Arthur Hall and Martha his wife to Robert Seabrook, of 372 acres, Wadmalaw Island, adjoining land formerly Richard Underwood's, then Samuel Underwoods, being part of 1800 acres surveyed and run out April 1699 for Capt. Robert Seabrook, and conveyed 21 Aug. 1710, by deed of gift to Arthur Hall from his father-in-law, Capt Robert Seabrook.

Thomas Seabrook appears to have married twice. There is a Seabrook group, which by careful examination and elimination, seem to be the children of Thomas by Mary——, who was probably a kinswoman of the Hexts', for Alexander Hext, in his will, made 16 July 1736<sup>14</sup> leaves most of his estate to John and Richard Seabrook, Sarah Green, Mary, Elizabeth and Susannah Seabrook, children of Mrs. Mary Seabrook, but does not mention a relationship. John Seabrook of the Hext will, had a brother Benjamin who is not mentioned in the said will; this possibly points to his having a different mother.

Thomas Seabrook (3) seems to have had issue by a first wife, name unknown:

- i. Benjamin Seabrook of St. Paul's parish, born 1716 or earlier. Married 7th April, 1737, Mary Bonneau.<sup>15</sup> On Dec. 13, 1745,<sup>16</sup> John Seabrook of John's Island, gentleman, gives to Thomas Farr of Charlestown gentleman as trustee, in consideration of love and affection which he (said John Seabrook) bears to his brother Benjamin Seabrook and Mary the wife of said Benjamin, and Elizabeth the daughter of Benjamin and Mary, five negro slaves (named), for the use of wife and daughter of said Benjamin Seabrook, without his interference, and any other child born to said Benjamin and Mary. On the death of Benjamin Seabrook, Thos. Farr to convey said five slaves to the said Elizabeth Seabrook, and any other child of Benjamin and Mary. If Benjamin die without issue, then one half of slaves to Mary, wife of said Benjamin Seabrook and the other half to return to John Seabrook or his estate.

On Feb. 3d, 1753<sup>17</sup> Benjamin Seabrook, as administrator, makes returns from the sale of the estate of Mrs. Mary Seabrook at Ashley Ferry; the purchasers at the sale were George Saxby and Wm. Harvey (sons-in-law of Mrs. Mary Seabrook), Benjamin Seabrook, and Mrs. Bosomworth (her daughter). It is not easy to distinguish between this Benjamin Seabrook, and Benjamin the son of Joseph (9), but that they are not one and the same is evident; the further history of this Benjamin has not been recovered.

Thomas Seabrook had issue by Mary—:

Bull directed Robert Yonge, Henry Williamson and David Crawford to appraise the estate of Christopher Wilkinson, and to apportion to Mary, daughter of said Wilkinson, who had lately married John Seabrook of St. Bartholomew's parish, her share of the property.

John Seabrook made his will 21 Jan. 1743, proved 22 June 1750;<sup>19</sup> mentions his mother Mary Seabrook; his wife Mary Seabrook and any issue he may have by her; if no issue, then sisters Susanna Seabrook and Elizabeth Seabrook, neice Mary Green; lands on Stono and John's Island; Mr. James Mathewes of Charlestown, and George Saxby, Executors; Miles Brewton, Hen: Christie and James Drummond witnesses. His widow married 26 Feb. 1756, Thomas Legarè (St. Philips Register Mss.) John Seabrook seems to have left no issue.

- iii. Sarah Seabrook, born 1720 or earlier, married before 1736 Daniel Green Jr., by whom she had one daughter, Mary Green, born 27 March, 1737/8. She married second Joseph Jones of Johns Island, who, 15 April, 1741,<sup>20</sup> makes provision for Mary Green, infant daughter of his late wife Sarah Green; and if said Mary Green die, then to John Seabrook, Mary Harvey, Elizabeth Seabrook and Susannah Seabrook; Alexander Hext, trustee.

Soc.) under date of Oct. 19, 1765 enters the item "M<sup>r</sup> Saxby hung in effigy." Mrs. Elizabeth Saxby died in England, late in the 18th, or early in the 19th Century.
- vi. Richard Seabrook, baptized Oct. 23, 1735,<sup>27</sup> died young.
- vii. Susannah Seabrook, baptized Oct. 23, 1736,<sup>27</sup> married first, 2d Nov., 1749, at Ashley Ferry, Abraham Bosomworth, Esq., agent for Indian Affairs; the newspaper account of her marriage states that she was "endowed with all agreeable accomplishments, and a fortune of £15000."<sup>28</sup> She married second, Hugh Penfield, and died in England.<sup>29</sup>

Arthur Hall.<sup>46</sup> He died intestate before June 10th, 1743, for on that date the inventory of his estate was filed by Elizabeth Seabrook, widow, administratrix; Joseph Russell, William Edings and James Cuthbert appraisers. He married Elizabeth, daughter of John Whitmarsh Senr. of Colleton County. Joseph Seabrook's inventory lists fifty-one slaves; John Whitmarsh's will (made June 1st, 1718 proved 25 Jan. 1720) gives his daughter Elizabeth ten slaves, Indian Rose, Nancy, Andrew, Pompey, Tom, Tony, Ishmael, Phillico, Phebe and Pompey's Jenny; among Joseph Seabrook's slaves are listed; a wench Felico [sic], fellow Andrew, wench Jenny, wench Phebe, fellow Tom, fellow Tony, fellow Ismael and Old Pompey.

Proved 25 Jan., 1719/20.<sup>47</sup>

The daughters are mentioned by their first names only, but the evidence is that they were all except Martha and Edith, married before the will was made; Mary to Robert Seabrook, Elizabeth to Joseph Seabrook, and Ann to Benjamin Cattell of St. Andrew's parish. dated 21 May 1733, of 420 acres on Edisto, recites the grant of same to her grandfather Thomas Bower, and his giving her same by will.<sup>48</sup> Her son Benjamin Cattell made his will 14 Nov. 1759,<sup>49</sup> and describes himself as Benjamin Cattell (son of the late Benjamin Cattell deceased) of St. Andrew's parish and mentions:

Vestry and church wardens of St. Andrew's parish, £500 for a free school; Whitmarsh Fuller, (son of William Fuller deceased) plantation of 441 acres on the North side of Ashley River, in St. Andrews parish [part of three different tracts]; Kinsman Robert Seabrook 319 acres at Horse shoe, St. Bartholomew's parish Benjamin Cattell, (infant son of William Cattell Jr. deceased) plantation "Where I now live" 730 acres in St. Andrews, also 160 acres pine land on South Side of the Ashley River; Rev. Charles Martyn, Joseph Seabrook, Benjamin Seabrook, Robert Seabrook, and John Seabrook "my kinsmen" to be executors. Proved 23 Jan. 1761, All the executors qualified.

From the above evidence it appears that Joseph Seabrook married Elizabeth Whitmarsh, and had issue (order of birth unknown):

8. i. Joseph Seabrook (later known as Joseph Seabrook Senr.) died about 1790.
9. ii. Benjamin Seabrook, died about 1780.

Lieutenant Governour of this Province.—Mrs. Rachel Himely, Wife of the Reverend Mr. Himely. (Monday, November 25, 1771.)

Death.] Mrs. Mary Beale, Wife of John Beale, Esq; a Lady much and deservedly regretted by all who had the Happiness of her Acquaintance. (Monday, December 3, 1771.)

Death.] On Tuesday last, the 10th instant, died here, in the Seventy-Second Year of his Age, Dr. John Moultrie, an eminent Physician. He practised the Healing Art in this Place, for near fifty years, in its several branches of Physick and Surgery, with such success and to such an Extent as would have done Honour to any Character. By Nature endowed with Several rare qualities of Mind, which were carefully cultivated by a liberal Education, first in the Languages and Philosophy, and then in Physick and Surgery; and, while yet a young man, enjoying the singular advantage of a personal Acquaintance with the first Surgeons of the Age, we cannot wonder that by those Helps and by the Example and Precepts of those Men, he gained that Degree of Knowledge which shown out with such Lustre in every intricate case whereon he was consulted. As a physician, he was eminently distinguished by his great Sagacity the first and leading Quality of that character. He saw, almost intuitively, into the Nature of Cases, and consequently his Endeavour to relieve was as quick as the Relief was certain. His strong penetrating Genius should never be fettered by the Systematic Theories and Jargon of the Schools on the one Hand, nor could it, on the other, ever be subjected to or debased by a low irrational Empiricism. Vigorous and discerning, his unbiassed mind enabled him always to see clearly, and judge properly. In surgery he has ever most deservedly, since his first settlement in this Place, borne the first Character; and in some Branches of that Art, his Skill and Success would have intitled him to the first Rank in any City in Europe. To his Character as a Physician that of a Gentleman was ever inseparably united. As a Father, happy in seeing his sons follow those Precepts he had given, and make the proper use of that Education which he had himself planned and carefully seen carried into Execution. In private Life, easy, cheerful, affable, facetious; fond of his friends, animating the social Hour in the rational Enjoyment whereof he knew much happiness was placed; firm and warm in his Friendship. His Conduct as a Citizen and Subject was steady, uniform and consistant, unawed and unbiassed, with a Heart overflowing with Benevolence towards his fellow Creatures, he embrassed all with the Spirit of Humanity and true Christian Charity, and viewed none as his Enemies but the Enemies of Society. Those who knew him not may, from what has been said, form some, though very imperfect Idea of this great and good Man; those who knew him need only consult their own Breasts for his character. Justly may we lament the unspeakable loss of a Stock of Knowledge gained by such extensive Practice, and so long Experience; a Loss which may to this Place, and alas! to the weaker and more delicate Parts of the Society, prove irreparable. (Monday, December 16, 1771.)

Deaths.] Mr. Charles-Stevens Stocker, Merchant.—Mrs. Maverick, Wife of Mr. Samuel Maverick. (Tuesday, December 24, 1771.)

Death.] Mrs. Susannah Bee, Wife of Thomas Bee, Esq; in the Bloom of Life, and after a long and painful illness, which she bore with Resignation and Firmness truly Christian. (Tuesday, December 31, 1771.)

Death.] “At Georgetown, December 20th, 1771, much regretted, Dr. William Fyffe, in the 43d. year of his Age, after a tedious and lingering Indisposition, which he bore with great Patience and Resignation. To the advantages of a liberal Education, and a retentive Memory, he added indefatigable Industry and Study; his Death is a Loss to the Community in general, but particularly to his Friends.” (Supplement, Monday, January 6, 1772.)

Deaths.] Mrs. Mary-Anne Farrar, Wife of Benjamin Farrar, Esq;—Mr. David Gillespie, Schoolmaster.—Capt. Coll. Macalpine, of the Ship St. George of this Port.—Mrs. Elizabeth Righton, aged near Fourscore. (Monday, January 13, 1771)

tom's for this Port.—Mr. John Brown, Warden of the Workhouse.—Mr. Robert Rawlins.—At New York, Abraham Mortier, Esq; Paymaster-General of his Majesty's Forces in North America. (Thursday, February 6, 1772.)

Deaths.] Mrs. Mary Middleton, Wife of the Honourable Henry Middleton Esq; Daughter of the late and Sister of the present Lieutenant Governour of this Province; a Lady whose many amiable, eminent and valuable Qualities and Accomplishments render her Death truly a Loss to all who had the Happiness of her acquaintance.—In Christ Church Parish where he was born, Mr. Edward Moran in the eighty-sixth year of his Age. ALL SAINTS, WACCAMAW; DESTROYED BY FIRE, DECEMBER 12th, 1915

HISTORICAL NOTES.

The parish Church of All Saints Waccamaw was, unfortunately, completely destroyed by fire on the night of Sunday, December 12th, 1915. Services were held in the building that morning and the church closed at one P. M. The fire was not discovered until 10 P. M., when some passing negroes found the building on fire and called Mr. J. H. Galbraith, the Rector, who lives near. The church was by then doomed, and there was only time to rescue the altar cross, and vases, the Bishop's Chair, an old Bible and Prayer-book and some altar hangings.

This was the third church on this site; having been erected in 1843, while Rev. Alexander Glennie D. D. was Rector. The church was quite a handsome one, substantially built of brick, and is thought to have cost between thirty and forty thousand dollars.

The Mural tablets, (now gone) and inscriptions from the tombs in the churchyard, were printed in this MAGAZINE Vol. XIII pp. 163-176. Some account of the Parish and its church has been given by Judge Henry A. M. Smith in his "Hobcaw Barony," this MAGAZINE, Vol. XIV, pp. 61-80; and the Rector, Rev. J. H. Galbraith, has given a full account of the destruction of the church, and also something of its history in The Diocese, for January, 1916.

by M<sup>r</sup> Melvin.

Cedar Grove March 1, 1783.

Sir,

By desire of M<sup>r</sup>. Melvin I take the Liberty of troubling your Excellency with the relation of a Circumstance which respects him & myself—soon after my return home, I met upon the road & took possession of a Negro fellow who is my property & had been carried off by the Enemy—M<sup>r</sup> Melvin laid claim to him alledging he had purchased him in Georgia where he was condemned & sold under the assumed name of Ben as part of the Cargo of a prize vessel captured by the Brig Edward owned by M<sup>r</sup>. Ogden of N<sup>o</sup>. Carolina & commanded by Cap<sup>n</sup>. Samuel Gooderd. M<sup>r</sup>. Melvin farther alledges that the Negro was known to be my property at the time of Sale & that he bid for him with Intention of offering him to me—I cannot help observing that I never should have expected such unkind usage from a Court of Admiralty in Georgia, being conscious of having endeavoured to conduct myself both in private & public Life in such way as <sup>2</sup> This letter refers to what is said to have been the very last encounter in America between the British and American forces during the Revolutionary War in which blood was shed. An expedition was planned by Kosciuszko to surprise a party of wood-cutters on James Island about a month before the evacuation of Charleston on December 14, 1782. It was a failure, the enemy being found ready for them, and the gallant Captain Wililam Wilmot of the Maryland line was killed and Lieut. Moore referred to in the letter, also of the same line, was mortally wounded dying after the evacuation of the city. (Garden's Anecdotes, Vol. 1, page 91).

to merit Milder treatment—I have refused to deliver up the Negro to M<sup>r</sup>. Melvin, & shall keep possession of him knowing that there is in my favour a Clause of an Ordinance of Congress passed in December 1781 by which the recaptor is only entitled to a “reasonable Salvage not exceeding 1/4 of the value”—which Salvage I shall willingly pay when it is properly demanded—M<sup>r</sup> Melvin says he gave £50 sterling for the fellow & I imagin his desire of my acquainting your Excellency with the facts arise from an Expectation of your Interference & good Office in getting the money refunded; to effect which I doubt not you will be stimulated by that Love of Equity Justice and good Government which I have long known you to possess.

Wishing you health and an easy Seat

I have the honour to be Your Excellency's Obedient and very humble Servant
Arthur Middleton.<sup>3</sup>

[HERIOT AND TUCKER TO JOHN RUTLEDGE]

George Town 30th January 1795

Sir

We have just received your's of the 23 Inst. and agreeably to your request have inclosed an affadavit setting forth the Loss of the Public Stores in the Department of the Commissary General taken by the British Forces in this place and the Vicinity in the year 1780.

Annexed to the Affadavit are the kinds, quantity and Value of the Property to the best of our Judgement, any other information you may wish to have we shall be very ready to give it.

The vessels that were Captured were Loaded with Provisions in order to send round to Charleston but being detained at this Bar for some time by adverse Winds it was Judged expedient to send them up the Waccamaw as high as they could possibly go for safety.

<sup>3</sup> Arthur Middleton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence was elected a delegate to the Continental Congress by the Jacksonborough Assembly which met in January, 1782. Lyman Hall was Governor of Georgia for one term from 1783. Like Middleton he was one of the “signers.”

Mr. Cogdell is in the Country at present When he comes to Town we shall speak to him on the subject & make no doubt but he will do what you request.

We remain very respectfully Sir

Your very Hble Serv<sup>ts</sup>.

My dear Sir,

Brigadier General Washington called upon me on Saturday night and went off again on Sunday Morning.—His anxiety to get to Carolina as soon as possible (having been detained to the Eastward longer than he expected) prevented his passing more time with me.—He gave me the model of the Cannon which you was so good as to present to me, and by him I wrote a hasty line to you acknowledging the receipt of it &c.

This morning I had the pleasure to receive, under a blank cover from the War office, your obliging favour of the 3<sup>d</sup>. of Aug.<sup>t</sup> and a letter addressed to Brigad<sup>r</sup>. General Washington, which I shall forward so as to get to his hands before he leaves this state.

Permit me, my dear Sir, to repeat my thanks for the model of the Cannon, and to assure you of my grateful acknowledgements for the kind and friendly sentiments contained in your letter.—No man can wish more sincerely than I do, that we may not be drawn into the conflict in which the European powers are now involved; but, at the same time, no one is more anxious that we should make every possible preparation to meet such an event, if it should be unavoidable.

In order to this, we should embrace the present moment to make our Establishments as respectable as circumstances will permit, and neglect no opportunity of introducing into them every improvement in the Military Art that can be useful, let it come from what quarter so ever it may.

I am sorry to inform you that M<sup>rs</sup>. Washington has been confined by a fever for some days past. She seems at present to be a little better;—but is still very low. She is thankful for M<sup>rs</sup> Rutledge's kind regards and most Sincerely reciprocates them, in which she is joined by—My dear Sir,

Your affect<sup>d</sup>. friend and

Obedient Servant

His Excellency

Governor Rutledge

<sup>4</sup> As General Washington died on December 14, 1799 this letter was among the last which he wrote. It is written in his well known handwriting, and with as much care as though he had been a man of leisure, and not in chief command of the armies of the United States when War with France seemed nearly upon us. The sentiments as to what is now called "preparedness" sound very modern. The "General Washington" mentioned in the letter was the Colonel Washington of the Revolution, who had married and remained in South Carolina after the War.

Joseph Seabrook, Senr. of Edisto Island. (Joseph 2. Robert 1.). Died intestate; administration to Isaac Seabrook 30th. April, 1790.<sup>1</sup> With John Seabrook and others, he was a commissioner for the building a chapel of ease on Edisto Island in 1770; was a Justice of the Peace, Charlestown, in 1776;<sup>2</sup> was on the Confiscation list in 1783, to be amerced, but was favorably reported upon. June 9th, 1788<sup>3</sup> he gave to his son Isaac, 226 acres "where I now live" on Edisto, called Pine Barren; same date gave son Gabriel 220 acres on Edisto called Hill tract. July 7, 1789<sup>4</sup> he gave son Thomas 300 acres "Where I now live" on Edisto, east on "my son Isaac," south on late Benjamin Seabrook and James Crawford, west by Christopher Jenkins, north by creek. Sept. 22, 1789,<sup>5</sup> he gave grandson Joseph Smelie Seabrook, of Wadmalaw Island, four negroes; Nov. 28, 1789,<sup>6</sup> gave son Joseph Seabrook, Jr., seventeen negroes, and gave his daughter Mary Ann Whaley, thirteen negroes 29th March, 1789.<sup>7</sup>

There is some evidence this Joseph Seabrook Senr., (8) married Elizabeth Bailey, but this has not been proved.

Benjamin Seabrook (Joseph 2. Robert 1), of Edisto Island, died about 1780 leaving a will which is missing. As we said before, owing to the lack of wills, it is hard to distinguish between this Benjamin, and Benjamin of St. Paul's parish (see page 18).

Benjamin (9) and his brother Robert Seabrook, purchased May 14, 1751, of John Cattell 420 acres on Edisto Island.<sup>8</sup> March 1st, 1755,<sup>9</sup> Samuel Eaton of Edisto, gives a bond to Benjamin Seabrook. Samuel Eaton, of Edisto Island makes his will 16 March 1757,<sup>10</sup> making John Calder, Joshua Eaton Benjamin Seabrook his executors; July 5, 1763, "Kannaway" Eaton gives receipt to Benj. Seabrook for his share of his father Samuel Eaton's estate.<sup>11</sup> In the S. C. Gazette for August 3, 1761, Benjamin Seabrook of Edisto Island, advertises for two runaway negroes, formerly the property of Mr. Benjamin Cattell. John May of Edisto Island made his will 3. Sept. 1765,<sup>12</sup> and mentions his Son William May, under 21; Mother Martha May, sister Martha Seabrook, and Brother-in-Law Benjamin Seabrook as sole executor; proved 5. Oct. 1765, Benjamin Seabrook qualified. From the above will, it appears that Benjamin Seabrook married Martha May; later, May 1, 1767, he married Sarah Calder of Edisto Island,<sup>13</sup> who seems to have been the widow of John Calder, (d. 1766), and according to family tradition was born a Baynard.

W. on Abraham Bush, S. W. on Robert Seabrook, N. E. on Andrew Townsend S. on creek.<sup>14</sup> Oct. 29, 1768,<sup>15</sup> Benj. Seabrook purchased of Isaac Rippon and Joanna, his wife, two tracts on Edisto, one of 234 acres and one of 216 acres, north and west on creek, east on Joseph Seabrook, south on John Beckett.

On 28th June, 1775,<sup>16</sup> Benjamin Seabrook of Edisto Is., St John's Colleton, planter, gives to his son-in-law, Ralph Bailey, six negroes; purchased of Edward Fisher & Co. June 17, 1774. Just how Ralph Bailey was his son-in-law does not appear; Seabrook may have married a widow Bailey, or Ralph Bailey's first wife may have been a Seabrook, his known wife was Mary Splatt, and among his executors are "friends" Benjamin Seabrook and Thomas B. Seabrook, sons of the above Benjamin.

Benjamin Seabrook had issue, probably by his first wife Martha May:

Married (2) Elizabeth Emma Edings (1783-1856) daughter of Joseph Edings and had issue.

There is a sketch of the life of William Seabrook in the Southern Agriculturist for February, 1837, which gives some interesting details concerning him. From this sketch we gather that he was an able man of fine character, who overcame by his own exertions the financial and educational disadvantages of his youth, which were some what the result of the Revolutionary War. At seventeen he took charge of his own and his mother's estates, and managed them so well that they improved greatly. He was one of the first to cultivate successfully sea-island, or black seed cotton, said to have been introduced into Georgia in 1785, by Josiah Tatnal, who received from his father, then Surveyor-General of the Bahamas, a handful of this seed. Mr. Seabrook was among the first to test salt-mud as a fertilizer for cotton; he also established a steamboat line between Charleston and Savannah, calling at the intermediate Islands; he was for many years an elder of the Presbyterian Church of Edisto, and gave liberally to educational and religious institutions; he left at his death, five thousand dollars to be used towards establishing a school in the Parish of St. Johns Colleton, and five thousand dollars to the Presbyterian Church on Edisto. Mr. Seabrook owned several large plantations; among them Seabrooks, (formerly Simmons' Island, "White Point" on Slann's Island, lands on Johns Island, Wadmalaw Island, Edisto Island, and Hilton Head. He built several handsome houses, one of which he speaks of in his will as his "Mansion house." He had given his older children handsome estates and large sums of money as they reached their majority, and his inventory shows his personal property to have been valued at $376,916.60, a large sum for those days.

ORDER BOOK OF JOHN FAUCHERAUD GRIMKÉ

October. 1779.

1st. M. O. Parole Rutledge.

B. M.

C. S. Bee. Farr.
Major Wells.
Capt. Linning

2<sup>d</sup>. Parole. C. S.

F. O. for tomorrow. Col<sup>o</sup>. Thompson.

1st. With being absent from his alarm post on the Night of the 11th. August.

2<sup>ly</sup>. for beating & abusing a Matross one Gavin Ervin in Violation of a standing Regimental Order.

3<sup>dly</sup>. for behaving with Contempt & Disrespect to Col<sup>o</sup>. Beekman of that Corps.

4<sup>thly</sup>. For treating Col<sup>o</sup>. Beekman (in the Character of Com<sup>s</sup>. Officer at the time when the whole Line was turn'd out & the Camp in an actual State of Alarm) with abusive & scurrilous Language.

5<sup>thly</sup>. For behaving in a manner unbecoming an Officer & a Gentleman.

On the first Charge the Court was of Opinion that Cap<sup>t</sup>. Mitchell was absent from his alarm Post on the Night of the 11th. Aug<sup>t</sup>. 1779, as it was conceived that it was his Duty to have been in the Park at the time of the Alarm notwithstanding no particular Post or Division had been assigned him; but as he was absent a very short time and had taken every Precaution necessary to receive the earliest Intelligence of an Alarm, they think the Charge rather frivolous. On the Second that the Court could not take Cognizance of it, as a punishment was annexed to a breach of that Order. On the 3<sup>d</sup>. 4th. & 5th. Charges that they could not be separately determined. But are of Opinion that Cap<sup>t</sup>. Mitchell did treat Col<sup>o</sup>. Beekman the Com<sup>s</sup>. Officer with abusive & scurrilous Language at the time when the whole Line was turn'd out & the Camp in an actual State of Alarm—They therefore sentence that Cap<sup>t</sup>. Mitchell should be reprimanded in the presence of the Officers of the Artillery.

It gives the Gen<sup>l</sup>. pain that he is under the necessity of disapproving the Sentence of the Court, but is constrained to do it as he thinks it totally inadequate to the Offence and that to approve it would be subversive of Order & Discipline in the Army.

The Militia of the 1st, & 2<sup>d</sup>, Brigades, Gen<sup>l</sup>. W<sup>m</sup> Sons Brigade & the 2<sup>d</sup>. Battalion of the Cha<sup>s</sup>. Town Militia, will parade immediately under the Command of Gen<sup>l</sup>. Huger, after draughting 500 of them, the remainder of them will go into the Trenches & put themselves under the Command of the Commanding Officer there—With the 500 he will march to the left of the Enemy's Lines & remain as near them as he can without being discovered 'till four oClock in the Morning, at which time the Troops in the Trenches will begin an attack on the Enemy; he will then advance & make his Attack as near the River as possible, & tho' this is only meant as a Feint, yet should a favourable Opportunity Offer, he will improve it & push into the Town.

In Case of a Repulse after having taken the Spring Hill Redoubt, the Troops will retreat to & rally in the Rear of that Redoubt, if it cannot be effected that way it must be attempted by the same Rout at which they entered—The second place of rallying (or the first if the Redoubt should not be carried) will be at the Jews Burying Ground where the reserve will be placed—if these two Halts should not be effectual they will retire towards Camp.

The Troops will carry in their Hats a piece of white paper, by which they may be distinguished.

from the Island of Rattan [sic], having been advised to leave his native Country on account of a deep Consumption which threatened his Life, he embarked for Jamaica, and was in his Voyage thither taken by a French Pirate and carried into Rattan where he lived six Weeks entirely upon Turtle, to which he ever ascribed the Cure of his Disorder. His greatest Foible was Credulity, believing the most improbable Stories even of his most intimate Friends, and though told by persons he scarcely knew. For many years past he looked upon himself as the Champion of the Protestant Religion on this side of the Atlantick, seriously believing that the Papists, particularly the Jesuits were continually plotting his Destruction, and impressed with this Belief he never went abroad without Pocket Pistols or other private Arms. In this Weakness, however, he was not singular; John Dennis the Poet and Critick and many others, might be adduced as Examples. He lived and died a Batchelor, was remarkably abstemious, and enjoyed the Use of all his Senses to the latest Period, particularly his Sight, being able to read the smallest Print without Spectacles. His remains, attended by many respectable Inhabitants, were decently interred in St. Michael's Church yard, on which Occasion it was remarked that six old Bachelors as Pall-Bearers could not be found in the whole Town. In private Life, the Social Virtues of which he was possessed, and his general Philanthropy, conspired to make him universally regarded as a worthy Member of the Community. (Friday, August 25, 1775.)

Deaths.] After a severe Illness, George Ingles, Esq; an eminent Merchant of this Town, where he had been a Resident about 35 years. Happy in a numerous Offspring and a very extensive Acquaintance, his Death is much lamented, but most by those who had the Pleasure of intimately knowing so worthy a Man, and so valuable a Member of the Community,—John Remington.

<sup>3</sup> She was the widow of Col. William Sanders, of St. George's parish who died about 1742, and daughter of the second Gov. James Moore.

Esq.—“Yesterday Morning, greatly regretted, Mr. Martin Campbell, of this Place, Merchant, of whom it may, with Truth, be said, That he was an honest Man, a most indulgent Master, a truly tender and affectionate Husband and Father and a meek and virtuous Christian. He bore for some years past, with the patience of a Job, that afflicting Disorder, the Asthma: a violent Fit of which put a Period to his afflictions in this Life, and let loose his Soul to share in the eternal Joys, prepared for those of the Just made perfect.” (Friday, October 20, 1775)

An unaffected Piety, joined to an engaging Behavior, endeared her to all who had the Pleasure of her Acquaintance, and render her Death not less generally than deservedly lamented. ## BERNARD ELLIOTT'S RECRUITING JOURNAL 1775<sup>1</sup>

Annotated by JOSEPH W. BARNWELL<sup>2</sup>

Set out from Cha<sup>s</sup>. Town 24th June and proceeded to the (torn) on Horsavannah the same evening, halted all Sunday there, & early on Monday set out for Green Savannah where I found Lieut<sup>s</sup>. Shubrick & Dunbar, then made a quick march thro' Jacksonburgh to Andalusia & took up our quarters there till tuesday morning at which time we again set out with Our Servants, Musicians, and others in our Retinue making altogether thirteen Riders, and crossing the Saltcatchers arrived at Pocotaligo to dinner, where being in hopes of getting some men we put up till the next morning, treated several with Wine grog etc, but enlisted none. On Wednesday we called at the Forest and dined, bated our horses & refreshed ourselves without any expense, in the afternoon proceeded up to Mr. Palmers at Laurel Hill—lodged there, and on Thursday went on a recruiting party and enlisted two men, then returned and dined at Laurel Hill, where we spent the evening, enlisted two females for the service and on the morning following set out for Barochocola, not finding any men there we proceeded to Sevannah River and arriving at the two Sisters Bluff crossed it about eleven o'Clock the same morning, halted at a Tavern kept by One Pace and dined there upon bacon, greens and tough bread, and some cold victuals carried from Laurel hill, from thence we continued our rout to Mr. Dills—but some of our party who had stopped at the houses to try and enlist men not coming up with us this Night, we halted here till late next morning, at which time the Sergt. arrived with one Recruit. Our phaeton hounds being broke on the journey of the Night before we halted at a black Smiths about a mile further up the road near the Saw Mill to get it mended, and here read over to Capt. Green of the Militia several Political Papers which animated him and served to promote the business he was then upon of collecting the people together to chuse Delegates to represent them in a Congress to be held at Sevannah, the beginning of July, from this Smiths we proceeded on to Herberts Tavern in St. Georges Parish about 20 miles higher up the Country, and being informed of several men in and about that Neighbourhood willing to enlist we halted here three days, during which time we enlisted twenty men, all of them young and twelve of this number of the Grenadier size, on the Monday following I gave a Barbacue to the Recruits with leave to invite their friends, and their Lasses of the Vicinage to a Virginia hop, about forty attending, the barbacue was served up, and as soon as dinner was over the real Virginia dances began, & continued till the evening when the Lasses returned to their homes, and some of the men with them, having orders to meet me at Col: Burtons the morning after, from which place Lieut. Shubrick crossed Sevannah river with the Recruits and one Sergt. and marched for the head-Quarters at Chas.Town on the fifth day of July 1775. The Phaeton being thoroughly repaired by Mr. Burton who keeps the yard here for building large boats, schooners, and I engaging two pretty boats from him, set out with the rest of my party for the upper Country, about eleven O'Clock and arrived at Mr. Stephen Smiths in Halifax County about 4 in the after noon of the same day, here we halted and received an invitation to spend two or three days, as Mr. Smith informed us there were to be two large musters within that time. One on the Carolina Side and the other on the Georgia Side, the One on the latter side was a company of Militia commanded by Capt. Walker; one of the Old Protestors against ye Gen<sup>l</sup>. Proceedings of Savannaenses, when they formerly attempted to chuse a committee & elect Delegates to send to the Continental Congress in Phyladelphia, and Col: Thomas of the Halifax district, who was the leading man on this unhappy occasion, having accidentally fallen in company with those (Gentlemen) militia officers, a day or two before at a County Court where they presided as Magistrates, and retiring to dinner after the business of their Court was over I had an Opportunity of laying before those Gentlemen some Political pieces, which I imagine greatly contributed to their reformation, as they discovered the secrets of Our Arbitrary Ministers, and explained all the Cruelties & injustice of the proceedings of Parliment against the Americian Colonies.

The following day we went with Mr. Smith and Lieut. Dunbar being ill with a fever was left with Mrs. Smith whose care and attendance showd' her hospitality on this occasion to our sick Lieut. and the Recruiting Party under my direction to the Halifax muster where we saw about 200 men drawn up in Rank and file, their Col Thomas told them that he had called them to this muster to let them know the Georgians were again endeavouring to enter into an Association and to chuse Delegates to represent them in a General Committee to be holden at Sevannah early in July, that he had formerly been averse to the American Measures and opposed them, but that he had now altered his mind and should do all that he could in the favour of America, he did not expect matters wd. ever have come to such a height, but since the Battle of Lexington he was convinced America was to be hard rode, & drove like slaves if the Americans were inactive or inattentive etc. etc. that for his Part he could not sign the Association which he then held in his hand because he held two Commissions from the Kings representative, the Governor, that he intended resigning them within three days, & should then put his name at the head of the Association, this he declared at the head of the battallion, recommending such as chose to sign it, many thereupon did sign it an Ensign gave his commission to the Col: & put his name also to it, others promised to put their names whenever they saw their Colonels & Captains names down tho' they did not think otherwise than that he wd. do as he had publicly declared to them. The battallion being discharged Col: Thomas assisted in persuading some young men to inlist and before dinner we got eight here, returning to Mr. Smiths that Night we set out early on the next morning for the Muster field at Williamsons Cow Pen, to meet the Militia company there commanded by Capt. Wilson, one of the Provincial Delegates, on our way, soon after we had crossed Savannah river, we overtook Capt. Ben: Cattell of the first Regmt. Also going to the same place, as we & imagined our business wd. clash, I agreed to inlist none but those of the Grenadier Size, and he promised to take none but those that were under that height, when we arrived the Company was drawn up, and consisted of about 180 men in rank and file. The Capt. read the Carolina Association to them then called out for them to sign it, and it was in general signed, they were then told by the Capt. that the Congress had Resolved to Raise two Regemts. of five hundred men in each, that we were then come there to inlist any that were willing. I then told them the terms & conditions of their entering into the service, they in general declared their willingness to go forth when called upon by the Congress, but wd. not inlist nor were we able out of this Company of remarkably large size men to get more than Four, two of which Capt. Cattell inlisted, the cause of which I attributed to the Capt. who tho' he would show a seeming willingness, often said that if he wanted to go they wd. go, but would not quit their Captain. Many of these men are young men & would be very proper for the Service as they have little, and some no property, but live on the cattle of the Neighbouring stocks, and the Deer they kill by fire hunting at Night, as I was well informed; we had a little humerous hop here & returned, into Halifax County again the same Night to our hospitable friend Mr. Smith, where we rested one day being the Sabbath, and On Monday Lieut. Dunbar being able to ride, & being desirous of going to Town was sent off with Serg<sup>t</sup>. Hane. & fourteen Recruits and One Volunteer.

The same day I crossed Sevannah River at Perry Ferry, & proceeded up to Mr. Galphins at Silver Bluff, where I met wth. Capt. Cattle again, who had just got about 14 men ready to go for head Quarters. I halted here one day & inlisted two men Mr. Galphins hospitality was so great, it was with difficulty I would get away however after seeing his Indigo fields and Spiral Pumps, and breakfasting with his mixed breed<sup>3</sup> daughters, Politely enough educated with music etc. etc., we set out for Augusta, & he with us as far as his Saw Mill about three miles distant from Galphin Town. We proceeded from this place on a rough road, & arrived at Fort More just in the close of the day. Fort More is built with stockaids on a bluff about 200 feet above the bed of the River but is now so out of repair that neither the stockaids or the barracks are tenible. On this bluff One of the Creek Indians being brot to be sacrificed by the Schawanese Indians who had taken him in War, looking & laughing at a companion of his then torturing at the stake with the greatest contempt at his enemy, they asked him why he laughed? he said to see them know nothing of the true Art of Torturing and that if they wd loose his legs and arms and give him the barrel of a gun and a leather string he wd show them the way of his Country. The Schawanese fond of learning the Art of Cruelty, with eagerness loos'd him, he put the gun barrel into the fire then tying it with a Wet leather string gave it several whirls round him the crowd giving way, for fear of being burnt with the red hot barrel, he at length threw down the barrel & Jumpt into the river, from this high place and swam across, several shot at him as he swam, but fortune favouring the Courageous he arrived unhurt at the hospitable shore making a gesture of contempt disdaining them they ran some one way & some another some taking boats crossed the river in pursuit of the fugitive, and tracked him for a while but in vain, he intent upon his escape, again took the river and swimming down the current with only his nose above water could not be discovered by his enemy and these keeping the river one whole night & the best part of the whole day after made his entire escape and returned very expeditiously to his nation where he related the above, which was confirmed in part by the Shawanese themselves sometime after.—We crossed the river here and landing on a large gravel bank on the Georgia side proceeded on our journey for Augusta.

MY DEAR CHILD

You wish me to inform you what I recollect of the introducing and culture of Indigo in this Country. You have heard me say I was very early fond of the vegetable world, my father was pleased with it and encouraged it, he told me the turn I had for those amusements might produce something of real and public utility, If I could bring to perfection the plants of other Countries which he would procure me: accordingly when he went to the West Indies he sent me a variety of seeds, among them the Indigo, I was ignorant both of the proper season for sowing it, and the soil best adapted to it. to the best of my recollection I first try'd it in March 1741, or 1742, It was destroyed (I think by a frost). The next time in April, and it was cut down by a worm; I persevered to a third planting and succeeded, and when I informed my Father it bore seed and the seed ripened, he sent a man from the Island of Monserat by the name of Cromwell who had been accustomed to making Indigo there, and gave him high wages; he made some brick Vats on my Fathers plantation on Wappo Creek and then made the first Indigo; It was very indifferent, and he made a great mystery of it, said he repented coming as he should ruin his own Country by it, for my Father had engaged him to let me see the whole process. I observed him as carefully as I could and informed Mr. Deveaux an old Gentm. a neighbour of ours of the little knowledge I had gained and gave him notice when the Indigo was to be beat; he saw and afterwards improved upon it, not withstanding the churlishness of Cromwell, who wished to deceive him, and threw in so large a quantity of Lime water as to spoil the colour. In the year 1744 I married, and my Father made Mr. Pinckney a present of all the Indigo then upon the ground as the fruit of my Industry. The whole was saved for seed, and your Father gave part of it away in small quantities to a great number of people that year, the rest he planted the next year at Ashipo for seed, which he sold. as did some of the Gentlemen to whom he had given it the year before; by this means there soon became plenty in the Country. Your father gained all the information he could from the french prisoners brought in here, and used every other means of information which he published in the Gazette for the information of the people at large.

<sup>1</sup> This letter published by permission of the Charleston Library Society is omitted from those printed by Mrs. Harriott Horry Ravenel in her book Eliza Pinckney. The planting of indigo, supported by a bounty in Colonial days, came to an end when the province was no longer under the British Crown, and when cotton planting became profitable, owing to the invention of Whitney's gin, in the last years of the eighteenth century.

The next year Mr. Cattle sent me a present of a couple of large plants of the wild Indigo which he had just discovered. Experiments were afterwards made upon this sort, which proved to be good Indigo, but it did not produce so large a quantity as the cultivated sort. I am

Your truly affectionate mother,
ELIZA PINKNEY.

HISTORICAL NOTES

ROUSSEAU'S UNCLE BERNARD

In Rousseau's Confessions (Oeuvres Postumes de J. J. Rousseau, Neuf chattel 1782, Tome Cinq Livre Quatre. page 170) the following passage occurs:

“Mon Oncle Bernard était depuis quelques années passé dans la Caroline pour y faire bâtire la ville, de Charles Town dont, il avait donné le plan; il y mourut un peu après; (“My Uncle Bernard had gone some years since to Carolina to build the City of Charles Town of which he had made the plan. He died there shortly afterwards”).

Col. Gabriel Bernard was never employed to “build” the City, but he was employed as engineer in charge of building and repairing its “fortifications” in 1736, and he died here in 1737. The first mention of him is found in the Journal of the Provincial Council of Friday, January 16, 1735-6 (Office Historical Commission of So. Ca., Mss Journal, page 170), as follows:

“Read the Petition of Col. Gabriel Bernard praying he may be employed as Engineer in this Province having produced a Commission and Certificate to this Board of his having served as Engineer in Europe.”

On the same day this petition was recommended to the “Commons House” and that house (House Journal, same office, page 354) on the same day debated the petition and “Letter of recommendation from the Honrble. Coll. Schutz to his late Excellency Gov'r Johnson” and ordered that Col. Samuel Prioleau and Alexander Hext and Capt. Othniel Beale be a committee of Fortifications and should join a committee of the Upper House and confer with them and Col. Bernard on the subject. The Committee of the Upper House were Joseph Wragg and Thomas Waring. The result of this conference was the following paragraph of the Act of Assembly of 1736.

“That Mr. Gabriel Bernard shall and he is hereby appointed Chief Engineer, who shall constantly attend direct and inspect the raising and repairing such fortifications as the same commissioners shall think fit and shall be allowed at and after the rate of £700 per annum nevertheless subjected to be displaced and the said salary taken away by vote or order of the General Assembly." (The value of a pound current money was about     of a pound sterling.)

He was subsequently granted £100 current money with which to procure "such necessaries as he should have occasion for to undertake the fortifying the Town and Harbour of Charlestown" (House Journal, page 485) and £50 current money to defray his expenses in commanding the forces at Port Royal (Commons Journal, Feb. 9, 1736-7, page 506). He was buried in St. Philips Church yard 19 July, 1737.

The inventory of his estate will be found in the office of the Probate Judge for Charlestown County in Book 1736-1739, page 132 recorded 28th July, 1737. His original will and the copy of it on record were both lost in the removal of the records from Charleston during the Confederate War, but the usual notice to creditors to prove their debts against the estate was published by Samuel Prioleau, Executor, in the South Carolina Gazette of July 16, 23 and 30, 1737.

LETTERS OF JOHN RUTLEDGE<sup>1</sup>

Addressed: The Delegates of S<sup>o</sup>. Carolina<sup>2</sup>
In Congress.

Camden, May 24th, 1780

Gen<sup>t</sup>—

I could not obtain a Copy of the Articles of Capitulation of Chas. Town, untill yesterday—Genl. Lincoln did not, it seems, <sup>1</sup> The originals of these letters of Governor John Rutledge are now in the possession of the Charleston Library Society and are published by their permission. They were presented to the Library by Mr. Thomas Bee, the son of Judge Thomas Bee, one of the delegates from South Carolina in the Continental Congress. They were published in Russell's Magazine issued in Charleston from April, 1857, to March, 1860 (vol. 1, p. 534; vol. 2, pp. 81 and 270; vol. 3, pp. 30 and 243), but as this magazine is not upon Poole's Index, its contents are little known. They are not cited by, and appear not to have been known to General McCrady. The letters were besides published with numerous errors. They are most creditable to Governor Rutledge and give a picture of the condition of affairs in this state after the fall of Charleston obtainable nowhere else.

<sup>2</sup> This letter shows that the action of the Continental Congress on June 23, 1780, in unanimously adopting a resolution declaring among other things that "this Confederacy is most solemnly pledged to support the liberty and independence of every one of its members" was only taken after this letter was read to the Congress, and upon the report of a Committee appointed to consider it (Journal of Continental Congress, vol. xvii, p. 554).

think it at all material, to inform me of it—b<sup>t</sup> I judge it necessary to acquaint you, & thro' you, Congress, (to whom you will make the proper Representation of it), with the Situation of Affairs, here, at this period, I send, inclosed, a Copy of the Capitulation lest the Flag which the Gen<sup>l</sup>, had Liberty to send, with dispatches to Philadelphia, sh'd not have arrived—The terms of the Capitulation are truly mortifying—the Treatment of the Prisoners were so—the Contl. Officers are Prisoners on Parol, at the Barracks on Haddrells-Point & restricted to six miles from them—the Seamen & Soldiers are Prisoners at the Barracks in Town—thus separated, with a design to get 'em to enlist, & enter, into the British Service, which some have done already, & many, with't doubt, will—I hope Congress will effect an Exchange, of these Troops, as soon as possible, (tho', it is probable, that Clinton will endeavour to avoid it), otherwise, in a little Time, they may expect 'em turned ag<sup>t</sup>. us.—On Saturday last, the Enemy took Post with a considerable force at Dupree's ferry on Santee River which they began to cross, that day, on their March to George-Town, whither they had sent some Vessells, from C:Town, & they are certainly in possession of Geo:Town, which was not defensible,—Genl.-Casswell, who lay a little below Depree's ferry, wth the No. Carolina Brigades, & the Virginia Continentals, under Col. Buford, had luckily retreated this way, before the Enemy got to that ferry, & thereby prevented their Cutting off his Retreat, which was probably their first Scheme—These Troops, now under Command of Genl-Huger, are abt. 15 miles below this place, & will be here today—Huger's Motions will be directed, by the Corresp<sup>g</sup> force of the Enemy—Sorry I am to say, his force is altogether inadequate to any offensive Operation—The Enemy, according to advices recd. last Night, were, the Evening before, at Black-mingo—but, whether with Intention to take a Circuit, by way of the hanging Rock Road, in order to get in the Rear of our Troops, or, to proceed for No. Carolina is as yet, uncertain—The next Movem<sup>t</sup>. they make will demonstrate which of These Points is there object—Parties are gone to reconnoitre; However I tho't. it adviseable, not to wait for their Return, but to give you the foregoing, & following, intelligence, as soon as possible—We have no certain accounts what the force above mentd. is, or, by whom commanded, but, it is said, & I believe it, to be considerable, & under Lord Cornwallis.

It is evident, that the Conquest of No. as well as of So. Carolina is the Enemy's plan—The Time for which they endeavour to enlist Men is untill these Countries are conquered; & a Junction with the disaffected at Cross-Creek,<sup>3</sup> will probably, be attempted by the Body above mentd., who have, with them, a large, Highland Regm't. I have good Reason to believe, that they will send vessells (some perhaps with troops,) to possess the Rivers, & the Towns on them, in No Carolina—& it is probable, that they will establish Magazines of provissions, at Brunswick, & Wilmington, whither they may send great Quantities of Rice from the lower parts of our State—They can hardly, I think, expect to penetrate, far into the back Country of No. Carolina, unless they depend, more than I hope they can wth. good Grounds, on the disaffection of the People there; but, I presume, they will extend their Course, along, & at some distance from, the sea—I hope, indeed, that their Progress will be soon checked, tho', their Numbers are really great, but, surely, Virginia will now be roused, & the forces of that State & of No. Carolina, powerfully supported by Congress, will make the Enemy repent of their Temerity in attempting Conquests more Northwardly—I cannot account for the Backwardness of the Troops ordered hither by Congress, & Virginia & for our Want of Intelligence, respecting 'em—We know not where any of 'em are—I still hope, however that a Combination of force, & better Fortune than our last, will soon oblige the Enemy to tread back their Steps, & tho' I have no Hope of regaining Chas. Town, except by Treaty, that the Country will be preserved, & No. & So. Carolina, & even Georgia, retained, in the Union, for surely, our Brethren & Allies will never give up the Independence of either of these States, or suffer such valuable Territories to be lopped off—whether the Enemy will make any Attempts on our back Country, except by Tories & Indians,<sup>4</sup> is still uncertain—If they send up a regular force, I am convinced they will be joined by Numbers, & many Men will fall a Sacrifice to the Resentment of our domestick or internal Enemies—But, if regular Troops are not sent up, I think our People will manage the disaffected, & keep 'em from doing any considerable Mischief: However, I expect no other service from the Militia—They are so apprehensive of their Families being killed & their Properties destroyed, (by the Tories & Indians who daily threaten Hostilities,) whilst they are absent, from their districts, that I believe it will be impracticable to keep any Number worth mentioning on duty, with the Army, or at any distance from their own Homes—If I can get 'em to embody, in their own districts, & keep the Country quiet, it is, really, as much as I expect they will do, at present & untill Troops arrive from the Northward—but Even this depends on the Enemy's not sending up regular forces, to take Posts in the back parts of the State, for, if they do the disaffected will certainly flock to them, & those who are not disaffected will either abscond, if they can, or, (which is more probable) be taken Prisoners with't. Arms, in which Case they will expect to be treated, as those are who have been taken under similar circumstances, viz. put on Parole—a piece of Policy which the Enemy have adopted, wth. respect to our Militia, for obvious Reasons—This is a melanchnoly, but a faithful Accot. of our Affairs, at this Time—However, we must not despair: I will still hope for great & speedy Succours, from our Brethren, to animate & support our People & for a Reverse of our late bad Fortune—But, immediate, & the greatest Exertions of the Northern States & of Congress are (be assured) indispensable, to prevent the Desolation & Ruin of this State & Georgia, & the Enemy's obtaining, (what they flatter themselves with shortly securing,) the three Southernmost States—too valuable a Prize ever to be given up to them—I request the favour of hearing, fully, from you, as soon as possible, & of knowing what Aid we may expect, from you, & when we may be assured of it—Genl. Gates or some other able & experienced Genl. with the Troops, who come will be absolutely necessary—We have not a Contl. Genl. here but Huger, whose Health will scarcely suffer him to undergo any kind of Fatigue—Colo. Hamilton is exchanged, & I suppose will do much Mischief, amongst his old Friends in No. Carolina—You will order the person by whom you write, to come the upper Road, & to proceed to Camp, wherever it may be—There, He will Either find, or hear of me—I am with great Esteem Gent.—yr. most obedt. Servt.

J. Rutledge.

P.S. Private.

Be pleased to send, to me, as soon as possible a Copy of Lincolns Letter, to Congress, respecting the Capitulation—I want to know why, after the last reenforcem't. arrived (of 2500 men) he did not evacuate the Town & save his Troops, wch I think he might Easily have done, with all his Artillery, & Stores, by crossing, in the Frigates, & other Vessells, over to Lempriere's, & coming thro' Christ Church Parish, before the Cummunication was cut off, which wd. have preserved the Country, or at least, the Army, & probably frustrated the Enemy's plan of Conquering this State, much less of going to No. Carolina—& why, even at the last, & when Cornwallis was posted near Wappetaw, wth. 2500 Men, Lincoln did not end'r. to make good his way, wth. all his Troops, (which he might have done, tho'. with some Loss) rather than agree to so infamous a Capitulation, for the Garrison are in my Opinion, in Effect, prisoners at Discretion—These things appear mysterious to me, but, I will suspend a final Judgmt., on them, till I hear what he says on the Matter.<sup>5</sup> It is currently reported, & believed, here, that G. Britain will offer America, the Independence of all the States except No. & So. Carolina & Georgia— & perhaps even of No. C.— & that such a proposition will be accepted—I think it impossible, that Congress will leave us in the Lurch—but, pray inform me candidly, & fully what may be expected on that Head—If they never will give up the Independence of any one State (which I trust they will not) it wd. be best to declare it immediately in the most pointed Terms, to satisfy the wavering & defeat the Schemes of our Enemies—Such a declaration generally made known with a good Number of Troops, wd. revive the Spirits of many of our credulous & dejected, tho' well meaning, People—

All your Friends who were in Town are well—not a Militia Man killed or hurt, but Peter Lord killed & no officer of the Continentals that I recollect, killed or wounded except Colo. Parker of the Virginians, & Cap. Tho. Moultrie killed—also Phil:Neyle—I left <sup>5</sup> Probably no one knew better than General Lincoln that he should have saved a part at least of the garrison of Charleston before the surrender, but he lacked the decision of character to do so.

Mrs. Kinloch & Mrs. Huger well, at Kensington, yesterday Fort-night—

The Delegates of So. Carolina in Congress.

P.S. Be pleased to make known to Major Harleston if wth. or near you the Contents of this Letter.

P.S. May 26th: 1780.

Caswells & Bufords Men are come up hither Each Corps consists of abt. 400 Effective.

Genl. Huger purposes sending Caswells to Haly's Ferry on Pedee in No. Carolina—and Buford's to Charlotte<sup>6</sup>—from thence towards Hillsborough thinking this force too insignificant to resist the Enemy in this State & that they will be of more service in No. Carolina for the present where he apprehends the Enemy will Endeavour to make an Impression.

Our Intelligence from below is that the Enemy had crossed Murray's ferry the day before Yesterday (abt. 85 Miles from hence) on the March hither.

A Copy of Colo. Marions Letter to Genl. Gates, & of the Examination of one Allmand, (which are transmitted, by this opportunity, to Congress,) will inform you of our latest Intelligence from So. Carolina—but, I do not believe that part of it which relates to Pickens's having taken part at Ninety-Six—I don't know whether the Genl. has sent to Congress, a Copy of Lord Cornwallis's Letter to Colo. Balfour—I therefore inclose one—his Lordship sent similar Letters to the Officers commanding in the several districts throughout the State—I think it is beyond a Doubt, that, at least, 7 Men, of those who have declared themselves British Subjects & taken up Arms with the Enemy, & who had afterward joined our Party, have been hanged, & that the Houses of sevl. who had left 'em, have been burnt, upon a presumption, I suppose, that they had come over to us—On the 15th Inst., Colo. Sumpter lay, with abt. 200 Men, to the Westwd. of Catawba, Genl. Davidson was with abt. 400 Militia, below Charlotte, & Genl. Sumner, with, (it is said,) abt. 800 more, that day reached Salisbury where he halted, to get Pouches made for his Men, & this is all Our force that I can find to be actually embodied & in the Field, except the little Party under Marion, & a few at Cross Creek, under Colo. Harrington—not a man from Virginia is in this State, except abt. 250 Contls. under Beaufort, & abt. 60 of the Militia, who ran away from the action wth Cornwallis, & who have been lately brot. to Hillsborough, nor can we hear of any being on the March from Virginia—Genl. Gates recd. a Letter, from Govr. Jefferson, dated the 12th Inst. but he does not mention anything of the 18 Months Men who were expected from thence—The 2000 Militia who, it is said, are to come from that State (in Addition to these) I am told will not rendesvous till the 25th. of next Month—I wish an apprehension that Portsmouth will be Clintons object, may not retard the March of the Virginia Forces—Genl. Gates says the Continentals at Hillsborough (who do not exceed 900) cant. march, until they are furnished, with Shoes, Shirts, overalls, & Blankets, & until Magazines are established to the Westward—If so, I fear it will be a very considerable Time before they stir—for, where these Supplies are to come from, or when they will be procured I cant. guess—as yet, not a single Hide is obtained for making Shoes—Genl. Smallwood, to whom the Legislature of this State offer'd the command of its Militia, will go, in 2 or 3 days, to Salisbury, to take that Command—The Governor has ordered 4800 Men into the Field, but, what Number will actually get there, it is impossible, at present to say, However, Men are assembling daily—The Horse are to serve for 2 months the Foot for 3—but, all that Genl. Smallwood can do, for a while, will be, to endeavour to harrass the enemy's Parties, to cut off their Convoys, and perhaps, now & then, break up an outpost. Still, I fear the Militia will get diencouraged, & tired of the business, unless supported by Continental Troops: However, if the Virginians wd. really send on the Men whom they have promised, & the Continentals were equipped, & marched to the Westward, & the Militia of this State wd. also turn out spiritedly, I hope, by the Exertions of the good People of So. Carolina, Lord Cornwallis' mad Career wd. be soon checked—But alas! when may we really, & reasonably, expect that all these things will come to pass, and, untill they do, what must be the Sufferings of our Friends in that unhappy State—I have seen Colo. Jas. Williams<sup>7</sup> whose affair with Innis (not killed, as you have heard, but recovering of his wound,) was truly brilliant—He is gone on with a Determination to distinguish himself as a Partisan, & I believe he will—I have put, both him & Sumpter, (each of whom may be of service but they will never agree) under Genl. Smallwood's Command—I wait, with the utmost Impatience, to hear what is intended to be done for our Country, by Genl. Washington, with the aid of our Ally—We have not a Letter from Philada. since Mr. Bee's of the . . . ulto—I request that immediately, after receiving this, you will inform me, of every material transaction to the Northwd. & get the Board of War to send your dispatches, by the line of Expresses which is established from Philada. to Hillsbo.—The Bills are not yet arrived—pray forward 'em, also the Arms, & military Stores, which are much wanted—Under the first Impression of Lord Cornwallis's Letter & Conduct, I had thought of writing to him, & of threatening Retaliation, on the Property of those who are avowedly his Friends: However, I have as yet, declined it, because, he probably wd. disregard a Threat which we cd. not, for the present, execute to any great degree, & because, I hope the Property of his Friends in So. Carolina will, in Time be applied to a better purpose—But, I trust, that Congress will, immediately take Some proper Measure on this point. None occurs to me so proper, as the Burning Towns or Houses in G. Britain—why Dr. Franklin prevented as is said Paul Jones's so doing, I cant. conceive, but, I am sure, nothing wd. so effectually put a stop to the Enemy's cruelties, in this respect, as Retaliation and, Seriously, I wish, & shall expect,—that some thing more than Threats may now take Place—It is Time to convince our Enemies that we dare to retaliate—Armand's Corps, <sup>7</sup> Afterwards killed at Kings Mountain. He certainly did not agree with Sumter's men, for they refused to serve under him (McCrary So. Ca. in the Rev., 1775-1780, p. 764, Draper's Kings Mountains and its Heroes, p. 168.

<sup>6</sup> The division of these forces was most disastrous. Tarleton fell upon Buford as he was retreating at Waxhaw's Church and practically annihilated his command giving little quarter. Governor Rutledge was himself nearly captured at Rugeley's house by Tarleton's men.

much reduced, are gone to Warren to recruit—while Washington & Nelson are at Halifax—not above 25 of their Men well enough for duty—150 of the Maryland Troops were retaken by Marion on their way to C. Town, but 70 of 'em went to the Enemy in Town & the rest have never joined the Army—it is supposed they are strolling abt. the Country, or gone Home—The Enemy's principal Posts are at the Waxaws, & to the Westward of the Catawba—they had sent some detachmts. to repossess Ninety-Six and Pedee—their force at Camden not considerable.

I am with great Esteem

Our last Acc<sup>ts</sup>. from the Westward are, that the Enemy entered Charlotte, in force, this day week—our Troops skirmished with, & killed some of their advanced party, but, finally, retreated to, & are on the East side of the Yadkim, except ab<sup>t</sup>. 250 Horse, (Militia) left at Salisbury, to go downwards, & watch the Enemy's Motions—Inclosed is an Ac<sup>t</sup>, of the Enemy's Strength, transmitted by Gen<sup>l</sup>. Sumner, who collected it from some Pris<sup>rs</sup>.

Gen<sup>l</sup>. Smallwood & Colo. Morgan will march To Morrow, towards Salisbury wth ab<sup>t</sup>. 180 Regulars the former to command The Militia—the latter a Corps of rifle-Men, to be picked out of them—not a Virginian is yet arrived here—when Gen<sup>l</sup>. Gates will send on, or march with, the rest of the regulars, now here, (many of whom he says are still unequipped,) or, when We shall receive any considerable reinforcements, I know not—the present prospect is truly disagreeable, for every thing goes on slowly—we wait, wth. Impatience. to hear of something important done, or soon intended for us, by the grand Army & our Allies—I wish our Hopes may not be vain.

P.S. All the Cavalry, who are now on the march from Hallifax, & will be here To Morrow, or next day, fit for Service, do not exceed Ninety—by —— from the Westward, we heard, that on the 1st. Instant, the Enemy were seen on the March, ab<sup>t</sup>. 3 miles above Charlotte, wth. 600 Men, & 2 field pieces supp<sup>d</sup>. to be Endeav<sup>rs</sup>. to join Ferguson who was in Burke County, but going down to meet this party, in order to attack our forces to the Westw<sup>d</sup>. of Catawba—Colo. Sumpter says M<sup>r</sup>. Ferguson & M<sup>r</sup>. Edwards are amongst the number of Gent. shipd off & it is said they are sent to S<sup>t</sup>. Augustine. Oct<sup>r</sup>. 5. 1780—Thursday. A.M.—Pray have Morgan's Promotion dispatched immediately—it will be very injurious to a man of his Experience & Bravery to put him under the Command of the Militia Brigad<sup>rs</sup>—I desire that you will make a Point of obtaining this Rank for him.

Congress will receive, by this express, an account, just now come to Hand, of Major Fergusons defeat, which I hope will soon be confirmed—The Genl. will, without doubt, inform Congress, of Lord Cornwallis' Strength, & Situation— &, (by what We can discover, from some intercepted Letters,) of his Plan & Dispositions—

<sup>s</sup> Making Morgan a Brigadier would (and did) give him command over the state officers when thrown with him.

He will also, I presume, send on Copies of those Letters, to have the parts of 'em w<sup>ch</sup>. are in Cyphers, unriddled—&, I wish they may be decyphered & returned, as soon as possible—but the Genl. is in so great a Hurry, to send on this News, I can add no more, than that we have not recd. a Line from you since yours of the 11th Septr.—w<sup>ch</sup>. on Consideration I apprehend you will allow is rather inattentive to Us—that Lord Cornwallis is going on with Burning & Hanging—Capt. Conyers assured me Yesterday that 200 Houses have been burn'd—Col. Morgan went from hence last Saturday with ab<sup>t</sup>. 180 Regulars & Gen<sup>l</sup>. Smallwood went off on Monday wth abt. 90 of the Reg<sup>r</sup>. Horse. The rest of the Regulars are now here & when they or any of them will go on I can't say, pretty support this from the Continent—ab<sup>t</sup>. 100 Virginians of the 18 Months men arrived here a few days ago quite ragged & unequipped & here they are still—No other force from that Country—In short if any Thing material is done for our poor State in any reasonable Time it will probably be by the despised shabby Militia—I am in Haste Gen<sup>t</sup>.

I fully intended going back to Hillsboro, but, at Cross Creek, on my Way up. heard such Acco<sup>ts</sup>. from So. Carolina viz<sup>t</sup>; “that Lord Cornwallis was dead—Camden evacuated, & that the whole British Army had crossed the Congaree, on their way to Georgia, also that Gates had marched from Hillsborough, the 5th inst., (w<sup>ch</sup>. he did,) & was proceeding rapidly after them &c” —that I thought it proper to push for our own State as fast as possible—I therefore determined, instead of proceeding to Hillsboro, to cross the Country, by the nearest Route, for this place, which I did, & arrived here, Yesterday—on arriving here, I found that the good News I heard on the Road was entirely false—probably, you will have been amused, with similar acco<sup>ts</sup>., at Philad<sup>a</sup>. I will therefore give you an exact Relation of Matters, as they are at present—The Enemy have a post (strong wth Redoubts) of betw<sup>n</sup> 5 & 600 Men at Camden where Lord Rawdon commands—another, fortified, of ab<sup>t</sup>. 300 at Ninety-Six under Cruger—one at Augusta, abt. the same Number under Brown—& Lord Cornwallis is, with the main Army, ab<sup>t</sup>. 1600 Reg<sup>ts</sup>., at Winnsborough, on Broad River, ab<sup>t</sup>. 45 Miles from Congaree, & the same distance from Camden & Ninety-Six—So that he may, pretty readily, reinforce Camden, Ninety Six, or Augusta, or draw his Troops from these posts to his main Body, &, with that, or his whole Army, retreat down, or advance up, the Country, as Circumstances render most eligible—Smallwood & Morgan are at 6 Mile Creek, in this State, ab<sup>t</sup>. 16 Miles below

Charlotte (on the Road to Camden) with ab<sup>t</sup>. 200 regulars, 1100 militia & 150 Cavalry—Gates is just marching from hence, to join them, wth ab<sup>t</sup>. 600 Regulars, & Sumpter lay, a few days ago, between Tyger & Enoree Rivers, wth. (it is said) ab<sup>t</sup>. 1000 Militia, but, I believe he has moved more Westwardly, with a View of giving a Blow to a party of the Enemy, in that Direction—Gen<sup>l</sup>. Butler is here, with ab<sup>t</sup>. 150 Men, guarding Prisoners—Gen<sup>l</sup>. Stevens is at Hillsboro., (& ord<sup>d</sup>. from thence hither,) wth some Virginia 8 Months Men (Militia who deserted in Gates's action, & who are cond<sup>d</sup>. to serve for 8 Months, on that acco<sup>t</sup>.) &, ab<sup>t</sup> 260 Men are, somewhere in Virg<sup>a</sup>. on the March from Maryland—Gen<sup>l</sup>. Harrington is stationed at Cheraws, wth ab<sup>t</sup>. 250 Men, whose Term of duty is nearly expired—A Col<sup>o</sup>. Brown, of this Country, is travelling near him, wth. ab<sup>t</sup>. 150 or 200 Men, & Col<sup>o</sup>. Marion is moving ab<sup>t</sup>. on Pedee & Kingston, with perhaps 300—Thus you see what force, & of what kind, we really have on the Ground, & how it is scattered—However, I hope that, as soon as Gen<sup>l</sup>. Green arrives, he will collect 'em, to a good tenable Position, &, occasionally detach strong Parties to oppose the Enemy's light Troops who do the most Mischief, to harass the Enemy, circumscribe their Limits, & in Time oblige, 'em to retire to Ch.Town, & give us an opportunity of reestablishing Civil Government, in some part of the Country, of electing, & convening a Legislature, & of making & enforcing Laws—but, this will not be the Work of a day—when, or whether, we shall recover the Town, must depend on Events not to be foreseen, at present—here at least—I wish, however, the Spaniards may really do what they threaten, & that Aid from our Allies was more powerful & successful—the Col<sup>o</sup>; & Justices of Surry County took upon 'em to release all the N<sup>o</sup>. Carolina Tories taken in Fergusons defeat, on giving Bail to appear at Court—but, I imagine many, if not all of 'em will return to the Enemy—they put the officers on Parol, they have broke it & gone off, probably to the Enemy—& they enlisted the S<sup>o</sup>. Carolina Tories taken in that defeat, (116) to serve in the Cont<sup>l</sup>. Army, 6 Months—However, 30 of 'em ran away, on the March from the Moravian Towns to this place—the rest (76) were released from their Enlistment, & are here in Goal—this was a strange & unaccountable step of the Col<sup>o</sup>. & Magistrates—

A Colo. Cleveland hung 8 or 10 of the most noted horse Thieves & Tories (of N<sup>o</sup>. Carolina,) taken in Fergusons defeat, & Lord Cornwallis has complained to Smallwood of such Cruelty, tho' he & those Acting under him have hanged many more of our People—It is said (& I believe it,) that, of the Prisoners whom Barr took at Augusta, he gave up 4 to the Indians, who killed 'em, cut off their Heads & kicked their Bodies ab<sup>t</sup>. the Streets, & that he, (Brown,) hung upwards of 30 Prisoners—his Lordship therefore has mistaken the Side on which the Cruelty lies—Gates has carried the Letter wth. him; However, I will send you a copy of it, & of the Answer, w<sup>ch</sup>. will be sent to it, when one is sent—I am endeavouring to procure authentick Information, respecting the Hanging, House Burning, Plundering, & other Cruelties, & Acts of Barbarity committed by the British in S<sup>o</sup>. Carolina & Georgia, & shall resolve, when I have obtained it, what to do, or write & to whom on those Points—I do not chuse to take up the Matter, with<sup>t</sup>. good Authority—From a letter dated the 4th. Inst., wrote by Leslie to C. & found on an Emissary coming this Way from Portsmo. in Virg<sup>a</sup>; (of w<sup>ch</sup>. I presume Gov<sup>r</sup>. Jefferson has sent a Copy to Congress) & other circumstances it appears that the plan of those Generals was to have formed a Junction of the Troops under their respective Commands—that they hoped to do so in this State, & expected to have been powerfully aided by the Tories of this Country: However, Fergusons defeat has frustrated that plan, & I hope it will never take Effect—but I think it probable that Lord C. will call for Leslie's Troops, or some other Reinforcement, to the Southward—if so, We shall have more Trouble than we otherwise should—I omitted to mention, that there are some (a few) Regulars still at Hillsboro, who can<sup>t</sup>, march, for want of shoes & cloaths—Lord Cornwallis has proposed to exchange the People taken on Kings Mountain, for our Militia, in his hands, but, I think that proposal must not be accepted—Genl. Huger tells me, he wrote you an Acco<sup>t</sup>. of Sumpter's successful Resistance of Major Wemys's Attack, and of his having taken that officer—he is a valuable acquisition to us, but, I am sorry to find that he is only slightly wounded, & likely to recover—I wish he may not give Sumpter the slip, for he keeps him with him—I have seen in a Cha<sup>s</sup>.Town Gazette, of Oct. 14th a congratulatory Address to Lord Cornwallis on his defeating Gates, & a proclamation of his Lordship for sequestering the Estates of Rebels (in the List of whom I presume we shall stand,) but, as I suppose Rivington has printed that Address & proclamation I do not send 'em—I shall expect with Impatience, Major Lee's Corps, Genl. Green, & Letters from you, all which, I presume, are on the Way—pray give me every material piece of Intelligence, as expeditiously as possible—I shall set off for Charlotte, in 3 or 4 days, in hopes of an interview with Genl. Sumpter, there, or, at some other convenient place, having sent to him for that purpose.

J: Rutledge.

P.S. Salisbury, Nov. 23<sup>d</sup>: 1780

The person by whom this is to go, not having set out, as he promised, I've kept it open to add any Thing which might occur before he went—Col<sup>o</sup>. or Major Davy (of which gallant Officer with<sup>t</sup>. Doubt you have heard,) is just come up, from Smallwoods Camp—which is still as above mentioned—Col: Davy's Report of the Strength & posts of the Enemy, & of ours, is much the same as above, except that Lord C—has moved somewhat lower down the Country, & so has Sumpter—the latter is below his Lordship, ab<sup>t</sup>. S:W. of him—C: is at Shivers Ferry, on the E:Side of Broad River—Sumpter below that Ferry, between Broad & Saluda—his present object is to collect a force, & by going so low down the Country, give those who are desirous, an opportunity, to join him—Davy says Tarlton is in Quest of Marion, & doing much mischief in burning houses on Santee—I wish Lee's Corps were come, but fear they will stop in Virginia—Davy further adds, that the Enemy mount many of their Infantry, in order to proceed rapidly, with their Cavalry, the latter of which consists of, at least, 250 good—I fear the Virginia 18 Months men will not come on, (for Genl. Mulenburgh, who was on the March Southwardly, with 1500, turned back) unless the Enemy sh<sup>d</sup>. leave Virginia & I am sorry to find that we must rely so much on our own Efforts. I mean on those of the Carolina's—However I will endeavour to prevail on Col<sup>s</sup>. Cleveland, & oth. Mountain Men to assist us for a short Time, with a party of Volunteers (they will not stay long) & I shall, undoubtedly, use every Exertion to prevail with our own People, to act as they ought to do. Inclosed is a Continuation of your Appointment, which I transmit, lest any doubt sh<sup>d</sup>.

arise, hereafter, (at the End of 12 Months, from the Time of your Nomination) ab<sup>t</sup>. your continuing in the delegation—I intended to have sent it, long ago, but the Matter slipt my Memory.

Excuse Haste, for I have not Time to correct, & transcribe this Letter, being obliged to write many dispatches, & transact several Matters, before I set out for Charlotte.

As a brave young officer, his country feels his loss, and as a youth endowed with the most noble sentiments of honour, his friends and afflicted family greatly mourn his absence.—Mrs. Susannah Watts, widow of the deceased Mr. Thomas Watts, (Thursday, April 30, 1778.)

Death.] In the 31st. year of his age, William Cattell, Esq.; Lieutenant Colonel of the First Regiment of South-Carolina, on the Continental establishment, and member of Assembly for the parish of St. Andrew. His publick character was marked by a strong and sincere attachment to his country to whose cause he cheerfully sacrificed all the comforts of a life of ease and affluence; and it may with truth be said, the service has not lost a more valuable officer, his country a more worthy citizen, nor his relations and acquaintance a more sincere friend or agreeable companion. Deaths.] In this town, Simon Hirons, Esq., Member of the General Assembly for the district between the Broad and Catawba rivers: Justice, probity and integrity of heart, constitute him the honest man; love to his country rendered him the true patriot; a well tempered zeal or religion proved him the sincere Christian: The whole of his deportment evinced, That he was an Israelite indeed, in whom was no guile.—After a lingering illness, which he bore with Christian patience and fortitude, Mr. Thomas Legaré, Sen. (Thursday, October 1, 1778.)

Deaths.] Capt. John Armstrong, and Capt. James Lacey, both of the 6th Regiment.—Nathaniel Broughten, Esq.—In the 88th year of her age, Mrs. Elizabeth Fidling. (Thursday, October 8, 1778.)

Deaths.] After a short illness, Mr. Alexander Adamson.—“Last Sunday, in his puerile age, Master William Elliott, son of the deceased William Elliott, Esq. He was a promising child; his natural endowments were such that had his life been spared, would have made him a credit to his family, an honour to his country, and a blessing to mankind. The implicit obedience that he ever paid to the commands of his mother, and the esteem and regard that shown conspicuous in his whole deportment towards his sisters, strongly mark him to have been a dutiful son, and a loving and kind brother: He has left behind him to regret his loss, a disconsolate mother, and two weeping sisters.” (Thursday, October 15, 1778.)

Deaths]. In the 74th year of his age, Mr. Justinus Stoll.—Captain Benjamin Stone, of James Island; he was ever a warm and steady friend to his country, and his success in life enabled him to gratify a most hospitable disposition.—Frederick Grimké, Esq; aged 74 years, 45 of which he lived in this country. We join in the general suffrage of all who had the happiness of being acquainted with this worthy character, in saying, that he was hospitable, benevolent and generous, a loving husband, a tender father, and a kind, indulgent master. (Thursday, October 23, 1778.)

Deaths.] At Amelia township, Dr. Alexander Rogers, surgeon to Col. Thomson's regiment: His attention to the duties of his profession joined to a benevolent heart, gained him many friends, who now regret his death.—At Beaufort, Mrs. Stevens, wife of Mr. Daniel Stevens.—In the bloom of youth, Mr. George Parsons, only son of the Honourable James Parsons, Esquire: The many amiable qualities that adorned this young gentleman, occasion his loss to be most sincerely deplored by all who knew him. The situation of his disconsolate parents, thus bereaved of their only hope, may be conceived, but language would fail to describe it.—Mr. John Giles, Merchant.

[Account of the battle at Port Royal, in which Lieut. Benj. Wilkins, of the Charlestown artillery Mr. John Fraser of same corps, John Williams and John Craig, volunteers, and four privates were killed.]

To the present Editor of the South-Carolina and American General Gazette.

Sir,

As the publisher of your paper is at present absent as a volunteer on the same expedition, and was in the same action in which Lieut. Wilkins of the Charlestown Artillery battalion fell, I must beg of you to publish the following elegiack lines, which, though imperfect are intended as a tribute to the memory of a friend, a patriot and a hero.

AN ARTILLERY MAN

“Behold, in Honour’s sacred Bed
Brave Wilkins drew his latest Breath;
See him among th’ illustrious dead,
Fall’n by the rigid Hand of Death!

“While he the levell’d Tube did aim
Against his Country’s raging Foe;
The fatal Ball, like Light’ning came,
And struck, alas! the deadly Blow.

“Full well he knew the dext’rous Art,
With skilful Hand, and watchful eye,
To point the Tube, or wield the Dart,
And force his stubborn Foe to fly.

“No less in Social Life he shone.
A Friend to every milder Art;
Religion claimed him for her own,
And Justice swayed his honest Heart.

“Alas! that an untimely Blow
Should snatch him from his weeping Friends,
Sure every Breast with Grief must glow,
Sure ev’ry Heart Compassion lends.

“His widow’d Spouse with heart-felt Sighs,
And helpless Babes, his Loss bewail;
While sympathetic Tears arise
In all who hear the mournful Tale.

“Not unaveng’d our Hero fell,
Full dear his precious Blood was bought;
Beaufort’s ensanguined Plains can tell,
How well his brave Associates fought.”

(Thursday, February 11, 1779.)

Deaths.] In the 78th year of his age, James Reid, Esq.—Mrs. Elizabeth Broughton, wife of Mr. Thomas Broughton, jun.—Mrs Elizabeth Martha Wells, wife of Mr. Edgar Wells. (Thursday, February 18, 1779.)

Deaths.] At Beaufort, Mr. Tunes Tebout; He was ever a steady friend to his country; and in private life bore the character of a man of integrity and hospitality.—Mr. George Russel, of James-Island, ship-carpenter.—Mr. Ripley, at the Ten Mile House.—Mr. William Tucker.—Mr. Michael Muckinfuss. (Friday, March 26, 1779.)

Death.] Of a short illness, Mr. — Wells, late first Lieutenant of the State brig Hornet. (Friday April 30, 1779.)

Deaths.] Mr. James Glover, Son of Col. Glover.—In the 60th year of his age, Capt. Joseph Hutchins.—Mrs. Sarah Smith, wife of the Rev. Mr. Robert Smith.—Capt. John Darrell—In the 70th year of his age, R. Roper, Esq.—Miss Mary Peronneau, Daughter of the deceased Alexander Peronneau, Esq.—Joseph Verree, Esq; one of the Representatives for this town in the General Assembly.—Mrs. Elizabeth Blamy, Widow of the deceased Capt. Blamy.—Lieut. Samuel Guerry, of the 2d. regiment.

To the Memory of Owen Roberts Esq.

Colonel of the Continental Corps of Artillery,
Raised by the State of South-Carolina;

Who was slain in the attack of the British lines at Stono-Ferry
June 20th, 1779.

“To worth approv’d, at merits honou’d shrine,
The muse that tribute pays so justly thine,
Lamented Roberts! whose virtues great and good,
Were, for thy country’s safety, sealed in blood.
If sorrowing friendship could that worth display,
Which would have grac’d the Greeks heroick lay;
Thy memory should to future ages dear,
Be ever honour’d with a grateful tear.
In every act thy patriot spirit shown,
But most in that when Freedom called for one,
Whose generous soul would every danger brave,
Her wrongs to right, her right from wrong to save.

For this, her soldier, thou her cause embrac'd,
 Thy country happy in a choice well plac'd;
 For this, thou brav'd grim war's terrifick low'r,
 And mov'd undaunted through the deathful show'r.
 But here, alas! how shall my muse relate?
 The cruel mandate of relentless fate
 Arrests the good, the valient and the just,
 And bids him mingle with his native dust;
 His soul, serenely great, attends the call,
 Nor seeks to shun, but glories in his fall,
 Your praises then, O Carolinians, give,
 And in your annals, let him ever live;
 Let every honour be bestow'd by fame.
 For sure such merit must deserve a name."

(Friday, July 16, 1779.)

Death.] In the 82d year of her age, Mrs. Mary Ellis. (Wednesday, June 13, 1781.)

On Thursday night last week, a small party of mounted Rebel militia surrounded the house of Andrew Williamson, Esq; formerly Bridagier-General of the South-Carolina militia, about 7 miles from town, and without allowing him time to put on his clothes, carried him off prisoner. On intelligence being received of this, Major Fraser, with 90 of his dragoons, was detached next day in quest of them. After having effected a circuitous march of more than 70 miles through the woods, with the most profound secrecy, on Saturday Morning the Major surprised their main camp at the Horse-Shoe, killed 14 on the spot, wounded several, took Col. Isaac Hayne, their commander, prisoner, and released General Williamson from his confinement at a house in the neighbourhood.

The anxiety to rescue General Williamson, and the rebels not making the smallest shew of resistance, but betaking themselves to the woods in every direction, prevented their sustaining a greater loss. Their numbers before that morning were estimated at more than 200—Their own accounts made them much stronger.

Amonge the killed, was the second in command, Lieutenant Colonel M'Lauchlan; his brother Capt. M'Lauchlan was dangerously wounded. Col. Hayne was brought to town on Sunday, and is now lodged in the Provost.

Death.] George Forbes, Esq; a gentleman of considerable property in the island of Jamaica, who came here some months ago for the recovery of his health. (Wednesday, July 11, 1781.)

Early on Sunday a considerable party of mounted Rebels, chiefly Militia under Henry<sup>5</sup> [sic] Hampton, who formerly resided at the Congarees, made a sudden irruption into Goose creek parish, surrounded the church during the time of service, made prisoners of the congregation, to some of whom they gave Paroles, and took several horses. About two o'clock they came to the Quarter House. Lieut. Waugh, with 18 convalescents, of the South-Carolina Dragoons, having a little before received intelligence of some flying parties of Rebels being seen in the neighbourhood, had just then mounted and was going out to reconnoitre; he was immediately attacked. The great disparity of force admitted but a short contest, in which the gallant Waugh cut down John Wright, of Wasmasaw, a Rebel Captain, and it is said, two others. He then surrendered, and was afterwards shot. Some of the Rebel Officers affected to regret the death of so brave a man, and to condemn the infamous deed.<sup>6</sup>

Several gentlemen from town were then at the Quarter House, some of whom got off; others were taken and admitted to their parol. Mr. William Trusler of this town, in attempting to make his escape, was shot.

After staying there about two hours, and regaling themselves with better fare than they have been accustomed to, the whole party decamped. (Wednesday, July 18, 1781.)

The enemy, on this occasion, lost Capt. Turner, and 21 men killed. (Wednesday, November 28, 1781.)

By advices from the back country we learn, that Major Cunningham, a few days after the affair at Cloud's Creek, attacked a party of forty rebels, under the command of Col. Hayes, posted in a block-house, at Mr. Edgehill's plantation, within fifteen miles of Ninety-Six. The enemy made a vigorous resistance, until the house was set on fire, and the roof fell in, when they were obliged to submit with the loss of Col. Hayes,<sup>9</sup> Capt. Owens, Capt. Leonard, Capt. Williams, Capt. Hancock, and ten privates killed. Major Cunningham had only one man killed, and five slightly wounded. (Saturday, December 8, 1781.)

Death.] On Tuesday last, Mrs. Conroy, the lady of Lieut. Conroy, of the Prince of Wales's American Regiment. (Saturday, June 8, 1782.)

Death.] In the 17th year of his age, Mr. James Wilson, son of Doctor Robert Wilson of this place. The modesty and good sense of this young gentleman, along with his steady application to serious study, had given rise to the pleasing hope of his one day becoming the pride of his family, and an ornament to Society. . . . (Wednesday, June 26, 1782.)

By accounts from the country we learn that Mr. John Laurens, a Lieutenant-Colonel in the rebel army, and a son of Mr. Henry Laurens, now in London, was lately killed near Combahee river, in attempting to impede the operations of a detachment of his Majesty's troops.

When we contemplate the character of this young gentleman, we have only to lament his great error on his outset in life, in espousing a publick cause which was to be sustained by taking up arms against his Sovereign. Setting aside his single deviation from the path of rectitude, we know no one trait of his history which can tarnish his reputation as a man of honour, or affect his character as a gentleman. His generosity of temper and liberality of opinion, were as extensive as his abilities; as a soldier, he fought for glory, and as a citizen he pursued what he thought to be the true interests of his country—He constantly condemned every oppressive measure adopted against the Loyalists, and always contended that a steady and disinterested adherence to political tenets, though in opposition to his own, ought to render their possessor an object of esteem rather than of persecution. His humanity can be no better illustrated than by mentioning what we are well assured was the case, that he highly reprobated the refusal of Matthews, the Rebel Governour, to the proposal from this garrison, respecting the purchase of a quantity of rice; on this generous principal, that it was cruel to withhold from those persons whom the Assembly of the Province had banished, the provisions which were necessary for the support in a foreign country, of the slaves they were to carry with them.

While we were thus marking the death of an enemy who was dangerous to our Cause from his abilities, we hope we shall stand excused for paying tribute, at the same time, to the moral excellencies of his character.—Happy would it be for the distressed families of those persons who are to leave this garrison with his Majesty's troops, that another Laurens could be found.<sup>11</sup> (Saturday, September 7, 1782.)

fessional knowledge and integrity than an unbounded philanthropy which marked his character and influenced his behaviour towards all ranks of men; his remains were decently interred at St. Andrews Church.”—Mrs. Isabella Izard, widow of John Izard, Esq; deceased; “a lady much esteemed for the many amiable qualities she possessed, and whose death is sincerely lamented by her acquaintance.”—Mr. Christopher FitzSimmons. ## HISTORICAL NOTES.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS TO THE SEABROOK GENEALOGY

On page 67, it is stated that Ephraim Mikell Seabrook, Son of William Seabrook, wrote the Hist. P. E. Church of Edisto Is., 1853; this is an error, it was written by Ephraim Mikell Seabrook, Son of Ephraim Mikell, No. 22 (see page 29). Thos. Wilkes Seabrook (14 on page 59) married in March 1799 Mary Elizabeth Partridge of St. Lukes Parish (Marriage Settlement).

On page 68, Marcellus Murray Seabrook, married second, Miss Tindall. Carolina (not Caroline) LaFayette Seabrook, was named by Marquis de Lafayette during his visit to this state.

On page 69, Ferdinand de Lasteyrie should have the title of Count. John Gabriel Seabrook (22, i) married Idella Turnipseed, and had a daughter. Ephraim Mikell Seabrook (22, ii) married three times, his first wife being Caroline Bülow. Joseph Whaley Seabrook (22, iv.) married Phoebe Hamilton, and had issue: i. Henry ii Caroline. Josephine Gabriella Seabrook, (23, i) married Dr. Thomas S. Waring, not Whaley, as given.

On page 72, the list of those who served in the Confederate Army should include the following; Capt. Cato Ashe Seabrook, Adj. Gen. of Jenkins Brigade killed at 2nd Manassas. Lieut. Pinckney Seabrook killed in Va. Robert [Joseph] Edings Seabrook, served throughout the war, was prisoner for four months; Joseph Mason Dill Seabrook, served throughout the war. Cato Ashe Seabrook and John Seabrook in "Rebel Troop," served throughout the war (Sons of James Beckett Seabrook No. 28 on page 66.) William Seabrook and George W. Seabrook served the last few months.

INSCRIPTION FROM THE BULL TOMB, ON THE PLANTATION OF THE LATE F. H. VERDIER, NEAR BLUFFTON, S. C.

The following inscription was furnished by F. Horton Colcock, Esq; and is of interest because it supplies the maiden name of the wife of Wm. Robert Bull (born 1762) which is not given in the Bull genealogy in this Magazine, (vol. I, page 89.)

In Memory of Mary Bull, wife of W<sup>m</sup>. Robt. Bull | Daughter to James & Margaret Cameron, | Of the Island of Antigua in the West Indies | Who departed this life after a painful illness | On the 3rd of Nov. 1793 age 28 years. | [sixteen lines of eulogy] Here also Lieth the body of | Robt. W<sup>m</sup>. Bull, | Second son of W<sup>m</sup>. Robt. & Mary Bull, | who departed this Life on the 1st of Nov<sup>r</sup> 1793 | Aged 1 day | Sleep lovely Babe & take thy given rest, | God called thee early home, He thought it best.

Contributed by HENRY A. M. SMITH.

In the number of this Magazine for July 1901 (vol. 2, p. 246) there is given an account of the last occasion on which the command of General Francis Marion encountered the British, known as the affair at Wadboo, which took place 29th August, 1782. The contradictory statements given in the Royal Gazette as published at the time and in Simms' Life of Marion are compared. By a most fortunate and fortuitous circumstance it is now possible to publish Marion's own report of the encounter. In an unpublished letter from John Mathews then Governor of the State to Arthur Middleton then a delegate to the Congress in Philadelphia from South Carolina, a copy of Gen<sup>l</sup>. Marion's report of the affair is enclosed. There is not the slightest doubt of its authenticity as both letter and copy have remained among Arthur Middleton's papers in the hands of his descendants. The report is of the order to be expected from Gen<sup>l</sup>. Marion—concise, clear, and free from all exaggeration. It is as follows:

Wadboo St. John's 30: Aug —1782

Sir

My last acquainted you that I would Return to this place, I got here the 28th inst. yesterday. I had notice the Enemy was crossing above Bigging Bridge, at Fardo's Plantation. I immediately formed and sent to Major Conyers to come on with the State Cavalry, my Guard at Strawberry was ordered in, before they arrived—Major Frazier with a hundred horse & some Coloured Dragoons, came on in full charge. I let them come within thirty yards and threw in a fire from my left which was advanced under the cover of three small houses; the fire was so well directed that the Enemy immediately broke and Retreated in Confusion, leaving a Capt<sup>n</sup> Robert Gillis and three men and five horses killed, one prisoner and three Horses and a Mule taken, our loss was my ammunition Waggon with my baggage, the Driver got into a fright and drove off contrary to Orders.

A few Militia mounted Charged the party with the Waggon and Retook her but was Oblige to leave her as they was within One hundred yards of the Main body, and we could not Remove from our position without giving the Enemy the greatest advantage in an Open field, which is what they desired to do, they made several Attempts to come round me, but my Men was so alert in changing positions and keeping to the fences, that they dare not come on—they took the Road to Hugers Bridge; Major Conyers is gone after them—they must have Several wounded a good deal of Blood was seen in the Way they Retreated. My Guard on Wando River took a Schooner with Wood and Provisions, with a parcel of Negroes going to Town, shall be glad to know if they may be made a Prize of agreable to your Proclamation.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's

Francis Marion

His Exc<sup>y</sup> J. Mathews Esq<sup>r</sup>.
